RENOMINATION OF TAFT COST $265,000.

President's Family Contributed $150,000, Testifies W. B. M'Kinley

APPEARS AT CAMPAIGN PROBE

Taft's Campaign Manager Gives List Of Principal Contributors—Ormsby McHarg Placed on Witness Stand

Washington, Oct. 8.—The sum of $265,000, collected and spent in the campaign for President Taft's re-nomination through his Washington headquarters, was partly accounted for today by Representative William B. McKinley, of Illinois, the President's campaign manager, in testimony before the Senate investigating committee.

Mr. McKinley said the "Taft family," comprising Chas. P. Taft, Henry W. Taft and Horace Taft, brothers of the President, gave $150,000. The campaign, he declared, had cost five times what was anticipated.

"When we started out we expected to spend about $50,000," he told the committee.

The other chief contributors to the Taft fund, with the respective amounts as given by Mr. McKinley, were:

John Hays Hammond, $25,000; Andrew Carnegie, $25,000; E. T. Stotesburg, Philadelphia, $25,000; "Mr. Kelsey" and "Mr. Hatton," of New York, described as "friends of the President," $12,000; Richard Kereens, St. Louis, ambassador to Austria-Hungary, $5,000; Senator W. Murray Crane, $5,000; Secretary Knox, $2,500, and $1,000 each by Attorney General Wickersham, former Senator Nathan B. Scott and A. C. James.

Mr. McKinley's records were read from small pencil memorandums which he dug out of a trouser's pocket. He told the committee they were prepared to show for the handling of the big fund except books kept in the headquarters that covered $134,000 spent directly for ordinary campaign purposes. Mr. McKinley declared his memory was not good enough to recall all the purposes for which money went out.

Mr. McKinley said he did not know the total amount that had been spent for President Taft in the entire campaign.

The amounts given by the respective members of the Taft family were not furnished by Mr. McKinley nor did the committee ask for further particulars.

Charles P. Taft, of Cincinnati, will appear before the committee tomorrow to testify as to his contributions to the President's primary, and Charles Hilles, now National chairman and formerly the President's secretary, will appear Thursday. The committee tomorrow will also hear Dan R. Hanna, of Cleveland, who gave about $50,000 to the Roosevelt fund this year.

Mr. McKinley though sharply questioned by members of the committee today could give no information as to the Taft funds raised in the different States.

The balance of the big fund for which he had no records had "dripped out" in the different State campaigns, he said. The contributions to the State campaigns by the National Taft headquarters were given as follows:

West Virginia, $8,000; Maryland, $10,000 to $12,000; Ohio, $20,000, Illinois, $15,000; Maine, $3,000; Texas, $5,000; Indiana, $10,000; Iowa, $5,000; Kansas, $5,000; Kentucky, $3,000.

Mr. McKinley and Ormsby McHarg the latter contest manager for Colonel Roosevelt in the primary fight, held the witness stand throughout the afternoon. Mr. McHarg accounted for the expenditure of $25,000 or $30,000 by the Roosevelt committee in the Southern States, where contests were brought. He denied that any money had been spent to influence delegates, or that he knew of the use of any money in this way either before or at the Chicago convention. Mr. McKinley admitted freely that the Taft campaign committee had paid the expenses of delegates to the Chicago convention, a procedure that both he and Mr. McHarg said had been a "long standing custom."

"Do you know anything of the use of money at the Chicago convention to change delegates?" asked Chairman Clapp.

"Nothing I would want to swear to," said McKinley, smiling.

Chairman Clapp asked both Mr. McHarg and Mr. McKinley if they knew of an alleged "underwriting" of the Roosevelt campaign by men who were said to have pledged $2,000,000 or $3,000,000 to secure Colonel Roosevelt's nomination.

"It is an absurd yarn," declared Mr. McHarg.

Mr. McKinley when later called to the stand answered the same question: "I think that a silly story, just as Mr. McHarg said.

A long examination of President Taft's pre-convention manager drew little more from him than the original statement he had given the committee. Senator Pomerene intimated that Mr. McKinley was a poor business

YOUNG DEMOCRATS MAKE FUND GROW

Library of Congress

Determined to Place Wilmington High in the List of Cities

YESTERDAY WAS GOOD DAY

Various Committees Hard at Work, and Not Going to Let Up Until $10,000 Raised for Wilson-Marshall Fund.

Interest has not abated in the least in the campaign to raise funds for Wilson and Marshall, but increases daily, and it is believed that the mark set by the hustling young Democrats of this city wil lbe reached. Yesterday's list shows that the various committees are right down at work and are getting results, too. Mr. J. W. Simpson's committee held first place yesterday, wit hone contribution by Captain Donald McRae of $250.

Thomas W. Davis, Esq., appointed chairman of the Lawyers' Wilson-Marshall Campaign Fund committee, has sent out letters urging lawyers to contribute and thus help fight the battles of Democracy in those States where it is necessary to battle with the enemy. It is believed that the lawyers of the State will respond liberally.

Dear Sir:—I have been appointed by the Finance Committee in charge of the Wilson-Marshall campaign in North Carolina, as chairman of a committee to obtain contributions from the lawyers of this State to such fund. From recent exposures before the Senate Investigating Committee, it appears that both the regular Republican and Bull Moose candidates have never yet lacked for money, while upon the other hand the Democratic treasury has had to struggle along with meagre funds.

The prospects for the election of a Democratic National ticket this year are brighter than they have ever been in the history of the party, but with the influx of money from the trusts and Perkins philanthropists, it is necessary for Democrats to come forward and help educate the people upon National issues.

The lawyer nas always been foremost in the history of the country, and it is to the Democratic lawyers more than any other class of men to whom the people now look forward for redress from Republican administration. It takes money to carry on a campaign of education, and I appeal to you to send me, as quickly as possible, such a sum as your contribution to this fund as you are able to give.

If you have already subscribed, let me know the amount and through whom the subscription was made so that proper credit can be obtained for the lawyers of this State. Do not delay your contribution, but send at once. It is needed now.

Yours truly,
THOS. W. DAVIS,
Chairman.

MONTENEGRO WILL FORCE THE ISSUE

Declaration of War on Turkey is Part of Pre-Arranged Plan

FLAME MAY ENGULF EUROPE

Little Hope Now That Diplomacy Will Prevail Against the Martial Tendency of the Masses—Depends on Austria.

Paris, Oct. 8.—A general conflagration in the Balkans is expected by officials here within 48 hours. Montenegro's declaration of war with Turkey is regarded as the beginning. It is believed other units in the Balkan coalition will follow suit as soon as the mobilization of their armies is complete. There is only a faint hope now that representations of the powers will avert general hostilities.

Montenegro's move is considered in Paris to be part of a pre-arranged plan. It is asserted Greece was first selected by the Balkan federation to force the issue and inaugurate the war. This could easily have been done by Greece, seating in the Greek parliament the deputies from Crete which would have been a casus belli to Turkey. Greece, however, declined to accept responsibility.

Montenegro was then picked. She had a long standing quarrel with Turkey over the boundary question and Turkey's refusal to grant satisfaction was seized upon as justification for Montenegro's resort to arms. A prominent diplomat said tonight: "It looks as if our fine European diplomacy had been beaten by the cleverness of the Balkan States. These States have grown weary of Ottoman promises.

"Turkey's recent decision to inaugurat reforms which were considered unsatisfactory and the slowness and hesitancy of certain powers to join in urgent intervention, has led the Balkan peoples to feel that the battlefield was the only sure means of exacting what they felt to be justice."

The opinion prevails that Bulgaria practically will be driven to war to satisfy public opinion.

In the failure of intervention every fibre of energy will be exerted by the great powers to prevent the war flame from engulfing Europe. It is realized that all depends on the eventual attitude of Austria, which, according to private advices, already has mobilized four army corps—in Croatia, Bosnia, Herzegovia and Southern Hungary—and stands ready to occupy the Sanjak of Novipezar should this coveted strategic territory be menaced by the Servians and Montenegrins.

Despite Russian sympathy for the Balkans, whose political welfare Russia has fostered, no complications have arisen between Russia and Austria and both these nations have assured the other powers of their determination not to be drawn into the imbroglio.

Confirmation of the forces impelling King Ferdinand to go to war, is found in a letter just received at Paris by a brother of a Bulgarian captain now at the front. The officer wrote:

"This week brings decisive events. Either the powers must effectively guarantee the cessation of the century old practice of persecuting and massacreing Christians, or we make war. But if the Bulgarian government permits itself to be disarmed by the powers it will be the signal for a revolution. Every Bulgarian ardently desires war."

In conclusion the writer expressed the opinion that they would soon be before the walls of Adrianople and added: "Without doubt it will be another terrible Mukden. But if 10,000 of us fall at Adrianople 300,000 will remain to march on Constantinople."

The Declaration of War

Constantinople, Oct. 8.—Prior to receiving his passport from the Turkish government, the Montenegrin Charge d'Affaires, M. Plamenatz, handed the following note in behalf of his government to the Porte:

"I regret that Montenegro has exhausted without avail all amicable means of settling the numerous misunderstandings and conflicts which have constantly arisen with the Ottoman Empire.

"With the authorization of King Nicholas I have the honor to inform you that from this day the government of Montengro ceases all relations with the Ottoman Empire, driving Montenegrins to arms to secure recognition of their rights and the rights which have been ignored for centuries of their brothers in the Ottoman Empire.

"I am leaving Constantinople. The royal government will hand his passports to the Ottoman representative at Cettinje.

(Signed) "PLAMENATZ."

Shortly after presentation of this note, which was accepted as a declaration of war, a council of war took place at the Grand Vizierate. The session continued late in the night. The noted General Mahmoud Schefket Pasha, who commanded the constitutional army and was formerly minister of war, was present. The city is patrolled by strong detachments of cavalry and infantry. A state of siege prevails and there is much excitement, but no demonstrations are permitted.

Mr. Plamenatz received instruc-

WILSON TAKES UP T. R.'S CHALLENGE

Says Steel Trust in Behind Third Party Programme "In Thought"

ATTACKS TARIFF POLICIES

The Governor Charges That the Roosevelt Programme is Not at All Progressive—Says Gary Suggested It.

Kansas City, Kan., Oct. 8.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, in his speeches at Topeka, Kan., and here tonight replied to Col. Roosevelt's request at Albany, N. Y., that the Democratic nominee prove or retract the declaration that the United States Steel Corporation is behind the third party programme for regulating trusts.

The Governor reiterated that the Steel Corporation was "behind the third party in thought", and added, he knew nothing of any financial support. The Governor amplified his position and made a new attack on the tariff policies of both his opponents.

"I understand from the newspapers," said Governor Wilson in his Topeka speech, "that Mr. Roosevelt was distressed by my suggestion the other day that the United States Steel Corporation was back of his plan for controlling the trusts.

"He interpreted my remark to mean that they were supporting him with their money. I was not thinking about money. I do not know whether they are supporting him with their money or not: it does not make any difference. What I meant was they are supporting him with their thought and their thought is not our thought. I meant and say again that the kind of control which he proposes is the kind of control the United States Steel Corporation wants.

"I am perfectly willing to admit that they think it is best for the country. My point is that this is a method conceived from the point of view of the very men who are to be controlled."

The Governor charged that the Roosevelt programme was not progressive at all in its fundamentals and remarked that Elbert H. Gary, head of the Steel Corporation, and George W. Perkins, a director, suggested the plan of governmental control of trusts.

"And if Mr. Roosevelt," said the Governor, "is willing to have Mr. Perkins suggest how the corporations ought to be regulated, why will he not be willing to take suggestions from the same quarters as to the detail of the regulation. I have no quarrel with Mr. Perkins except with his judgment.

"I am not questioning Mr. Roosevelt's motives. I have nothing to do with them. But if he is allowed to pattern the present processes of industry in this country and direct them with regard to the way they treat the United States when he will see that his old classifications are realized, for he used to tell us there were good trusts and bad trusts, and he will guarantee to us that all trusts will be good.

"I dare say he believes what he says, but I don't believe he can play Providence to the human race quite so successfully as that and I am strengthened in that doubt by the fact that they have fooled him on one or two notable occasions already.

"I am not blaming a man because he has been taken into camp, but I do blame him for promising to perpetuate an arrangement which will make

"DYNAMITERS" CASE OUTLINED

Wm. N. Harding Shows What Defense of Men Accused of Dynamite Conspiracy Will be—District Attorney Concludes.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 8.—What the defense will be in the trial of the men accused by the government of complicity in the dynamite conspiracy, was outlined before the jury today by William N. Harding, attorney for the defendants.

Mr. Harding said at the outset it would be shown that the executive board of the International Association of Bridge & Structural Iron Workers never appropriated a dollar to be used for dynamiting. If anyone connected with the union diverted funds for any illegal purpose, the guilty persons, he said, it would be shown, were not among the present defendants.

"When you have heard all the testimony," said Mr. Harding, "we think you will have concluded that about three men were engaged in the nefarious work of dynamiting and that those three men already have pleaded guilty.

Referring to letters written by Frank M. Ryan, president of the Iron Workers' Union, to various business agents which the government quoted as showing that "jobs" was the term used to designate explosions against employers of non-union labor, Mr. Harding said it would be shown that "jobs" meant only new work which offered opportunity for union men to get employment. He added, it would be upon the very letters which the government quoted in the indictments that the defense expected to rest its case.

District Attorney Miller completed today an address to the jury of 23 hours. In concluding, he described the arrest of J. B. McNamara and Ortie E. McManigal at Detroit, saying that while in the hands of detectives, McNamara had offered first $5,000 and then $30,000 if they would free him. "McNamara said it was no use to arrest him, for behind him he had the Iron Workers Union and behind the union the American Federation of Labor," said Mr. Miller. He said he would raise $50,000 and employ Clarence S. Darrow to defend him. Mr. Miller said Herbert S. Hockin, acting secretary-treasurer of the International Bridge & Structural Iron Workers, in "betraying" his fellow defendants, had delivered the government agent the keys of the union headquarters office and had permitted a telephonic

ELEVEN JURORS IN THE BOX

Ten Chosen Yesterday In Becker Case —All Business Men—Justice Goff Held Extra Night Session to Complete Jury

New York, Oct. 8.—Eleven jurors had been chosen to try former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal when Justice Goff late tonight adjourned examination of talesmen until tomorrow.

Eight jurors were in the box at the close of the afternoon session and Justice Goff ordered a night session in the hope that the jury could be completed and sworn before midnight.

Dozens of talesmen were examined at the night session and three were accepted by both sides. The twelfth juror, it is expected, will be chosen early tomorrow.

The jurors chosen tonight are:

Clarence T. Coley, a mechanical engineer; Paul T. Kammerer, real estate dealer, and John E. Dillon. With eight jurors in the box at the close today of the afternoon session, Justice Goff announced he would hold an extra session of the court tonight which continue until the selection of the jury was completed.

The fact that counsel had exhausted 4 talesmen when the session closed, 60 of them in picking the seven jurors accepted today, promised that the extra session would be prolonged until late into the night, unless four more satisfactory talesmen out of the remainder of the panel of 250 were seated in the box.

The jury as it stood at the end of the afternoon session was characterized as "perfect" by Becker and his attorney, John F. McIntyre. The jurors were all prosperous looking business men. In age they ranged from 35 to 45, but all were married men with children, a point which Becker, who is married, insists as a necessary qualification.

The jurors selected are: Harold B. Skinner, an electrical salesman, chosen yesterday as foreman; Robert C. Purcell, a manufacturer; John B. Hardy, a retired merchant; Edward C. Soule, an auditor; W. F. Wood, a woolen merchant; Dow J. Becker, a lumber merchant; Charles J. Peatt, commissionary agent for a railroad, and Leslie A. Ware, a wholesale baker.

"We want above all things," said Mr. McIntyre tonight, "men with analytical minds. We want men who can see that there is distinction between murder, bribery and graft. This is a murder case and we don't want jurors who wouldbe influenced to convict for murder on testimony that the defendant was guilty of bribery or graft."

Mr. McIntyre used 14 peremptory challenges today on talesmen who, in his opinion, did not measure up to these qualifications or to whom Becker himself objected. No juror was accepted until Becker had given his approval. There were only eight peremptory challenges on the part of the State. Each side is allowed thirty.

TESREAU WEAKENS AND RED SOX WIN

GIANTS MAKE GAME FINISH

"Smokey" Joe's Terrific Speed Bewilders National Champions—Crandall Replaces Tesreau In The Eighth

New York, Oct. 8.—The Boston Americans triumphed over the New York Nationals by a score of 4 to 3 today before more than 35,000 people in the first game of the world's series. The contest was nip and tuck all the way. The Giants made a thrilling rally in the ninth inning when they nearly tied the score, but "Smokey" Joe Wood's bewildering speed turned two Giant batters back to the bench on strikes for the last two put outs and the Red Sox carried off the honors.

When victory perched on the banners of the Red Sox, the Boston delegation marched across the field and Mayor Fitzgerald, of Boston, who was a guest of Mayor Gaynor, led in the cheers for the players of both teams. Governor Eugene Foss, of Massachusettes, and Governor Tener, of Pennsylvania, saw the contest.

Dramatic Finish

Rarely, if ever, has any world's series game provided such a dramatic finish. Two runs behind, Giant supporters had given up hope. Hundreds were leaving the stands when Merkle sent a single to the outfield after one man was out. A Texas leaguer by Herzog, followed by a hit by Meyers which sent Merkle home, put the stands in a flame of excitement.

Wood Fans Last Two

With Giants on second and third, thousands stood in their seats and yelled. Fletcher swung his bat nervously, while Joe Wood seemed anxious. The Red Sox twirler patted the grass, hitched his belt, rubbed the ball and adjusted his cap. This delay seemed to unsettle Fletcher and he swung futilely at Wood's fast-breaking shoots three times.

Crandall, a strong man in the pinches, came up. Wood put over two strikes and then three balls. The Red Sox twirler then shot over a high fast in-shoot.

Crandall swung, missed and the game was over.

Selection of Pitchers

It was a battle of managerial wits in the selection of pitchers. Manager McGraw pinned his faith in Tesreau, who held the Red Sox hitless until the sixth inning, when Speaker's three-bagger broke the ice. Tesreau weakened in the seventh inning and before the fusilade of Boston hits was over three scores were made, and the Red Sox had a lead of two runs.

Manager Stahl placed his star pitcher, Joe Wood, on the mound and in only two innings was the Red Sox moundsman hit hard. His dazzling speed continued undiminished until the last man had struck out. Wood fanned 11 and gave only two bases.

Giants Score First

The Giants scored first. In the third inning after Tesreau had fanned, Devore worked the Red Sox boxman for a base. Doyle put a high fly to left which fell too far back for either Gardner or Wagner to reach. Doyle reached second on the hit, but Devore was held at third. Then Murray proved the Giants' hero of the day. The man who went hitless through last year's world's series connected with one of Wood's in-shoots and sent the ball skimming over second for a single and brought Devore and Doyle over the plate. Tesreau was supreme until the sixth inning. Twenty Red Sox players had faced his quick-breaking spitball before the first hit was made. That was a long drive for three bases by Speaker, who came home for the first run for the American Leaguers on an infield out by Duffy Lewis.

The End of Tesreau

The seventh inning saw the end of Tesreau. Three singles and a double sent three red-legged Boston players home and Manager McGraw was quick to see that the Boston players had at last solved Tesreau's delivery. Wagner started the trouble for Tesreau in the seventh after Stahl had been retired. Cady followed with a long drive to center and the Boston delegations in the stand turned loose a lusty cheer. Wood forced Cady at second, but Hooper shot a double past Merkle, putting Wagner across the plate and sending Wood to third.

Yerkes Wins Game

Yerkes responded with a sharp drive over second and before the ball could be returned to the infield Hooper and Wood had scored. With a lead of two runs the Giants had to take the offensive and nobly they responded with their ninth-inning rally, which failed by one of tying the score.

"We won as we thought we would, but the Giants gave us a great fight," remarked Manager Stahl as he led his players aboard an early evening train for Boston. "Joe Wood carried us to victory with fine pitching and our players were ready with their bats when hits meant runs."

McGraw Not Disheartened

"The series is just beginning," said

Manager McGraw. "We are by no means disheartened by today's defeat. The Athletics were defeated in the first game of the world's series last year, but they captured the title of champions."

Business came to a standstill in the financial district when the game was in progress. Crowds on the stock exchange and brokerage houses forsook the stock quotation tickers and hung around the news tape which carried the record of the game. Scores of bankers took a holiday, while directors of the Missouri Pacific Railway advanced a directors' meeting one hour that several of them might see the game.

INSERT

The crowd at the Polo Grounds was handled without confusion. Speculators obtained high prices for seats in the upper stand, but many lost money when would-be purchasers failed to meet exorbitant demands.

Attendance and Receipts.

The attendance figures fell short of the first game between the Athletics and the Giants last year.

The National Commission's figures for attendance and receipts at today's game are as follows:

Total paid attendance, 35,730.
Total receipts, $75,127.
National Commission's share, $7,513.
Players' share, $40,568.
Each club's share, $13,523.

Doyle and Herzog Shine.

For New York "Larry" Doyle shone with his usual brilliancy. He made two hits in four trips to the plate, one of them being for two bases. He was all over the field and nothing got past him. Herzog also was very much in the game, getting two hits and helping New York to make the third run.

But one attempt was made to steal a base and that came in the second inning, when after he reached first base on a force, Stahl started down and was flagged by Meyers with a perfect throw to Doyle.

Despite the nervousness of the two teams, there were but two misplays. These were committed by Wagner and Fletcher, the two shortstops falling down on easy grounders.

Seventeen Men Fanned.

Seventeen men struck out. For New York Fletcher fell a victim three times to Wood's "smoke" balls, Tesreau fanned twice and Devore, Snodgrass, Merkle, Herzog, Meyers and Crandall each struck out once. Stahl went out twice on strikes as did also third baseman Gardner. Hooper and Speaker struck out once. The umpiring was of the highest order.

The Game is On.

When all the preliminary conferences had been concluded, and the photographers had taken pictures of the rival players, the men took their positions amid a storm of cheers. Mayor Gaynor threw out the first ball which Meyers caught, and the game was on.

Tesreau gave Hooper, the first Red Sox up, a base on balls. He took second and third on Yerkes' and Speaker's outs, both of which were fast grounders, and was left on the paths when Lewis sent a high fly to Snodgrass.

The First Hit

Wood struck out Devore, the first New Yorker at bat. Doyle shot a grounder to Wagner, who threw the New York captain out at first. Snodgrass brought the stands to their feet by driving a single over second, the first hit. Wood passed Murray but Merkle popped to Wagner.

In the second inning Fletcher fumbled Gardner's grounder. Stahl hit to Tesreau, who threw Gardner out at second, Stahl reaching first. On an attempted steal to second Stahl was thrown out. Wagner was given his base on balls and Cady followed by sending a high fly to Murray.

There was little action in New York's second inning. Herzog sent up a pop fly that Stahl caught and Meyers and Fletcher struck out.

Great Reception for Wood

Wood was given a fine reception by the crowd as he slowly walked to the plate in the third inning. He received a base on balls and Hooper sent him down to second on a neat sacrifice, Tesreau to Merkle. Yerkes again went out Doyle to Merkle, Wood taking third where he remained as Lewis closed the inning, after Speaker had been purposely passed, with a high fly that Fletcher had to run backwards to get.

Doyle Hits for Two Bases

In New York's half of the third Tesreau, the first man up, struck out. Devore walked and a minute later pulled up at third when Doyle hit for two bases. Wood appeared to be weakening, but he fooled Snodgrass into striking out.

New York Scores Two

Murray singled to center, bringing both Devore and Doyle home with the first runs of the game. Speaker threw home to head off Doyle at the plate, but he was too late and Murray in trying to make second on the throw-in was thrown out by Cady, ending the inning.

It was one,two, three, for the Bostons in their fourth inning. Gardner fouled to Herzog, Stahl struck out and Wagner sent up a foul to Merkle.

For New York Merkle fanned. Herzog lifted a single to centerfield and went to second on Meyers' weak grounder that Wood got and shot over to Stahl ahead of the Indian. Fletcher struck out for the second time.

In the fifth Cady was an easy out, Doyle to Merkle. Wood rolled an easy grounder to Merkle that the latter scooped up and touched the bag and Hooper fell a victim to strikes.

Doyle Gets Another Hit

Tesreau, the first man up for New York struck out. Devore sent a high one to Lewis and "Larry" Doyle again brought the stands to their feet by shooting a single over third which Gardner knocked down, but could not handle. Doyle rounded first as Gardner got the ball and was thrown out at second trying to stretch the hit, Wagner making the out.

Speaker Scores for Sox

Yerkes flied out to Snodgrass in the sixth. Speaker drove one to deep left-center. Snodgrass sprinted after the ball and Devore seeing the center fielder apparently had the ball sighted, stopped. Snodgrass ran with the ball and was only able to get his finger tips on it and the sphere rolled toward the centerfield wall. When the ball was returned to the infield Speaker was on third. The Boston outfielder then came home on Lewis' easy out, Doyle to Merkle. Gardner struck out.

New York's sixth inning was quickly over. Wagner fumbled Snodgrass' grounder. In attempting the sacrifice Murray sent up a little pop fly that Stahl gathered in and doubled Snodgrass at first, Wood taking the toss. Merkle ended the inning with a fly to Wagner.

Boston Takes the Lead

Then came the big seventh inning when Boston forged to the front as already told, by scoring three runs and driving Tesreau from the box. For New York Herzog caused a groan when he struck out. Meyers was hit by a pitched ball, but a moment later was forced at second by Fletcher, Fletcher, Yerkes to Wagner. McCormick batting for Tesreau flew out to Lewis.

In the eighth inning, with Crandall pitching, Lewis went out Fletcher to Merkle and Gardner and Stahl struck out. The Giants in the half of the eighth also were quickly disposed of. Devore and Doyle both went out Wagner to Stahl, and Snodgrass sent a pop fly to Gardner.

Giants Die Hard

Wagner opened the ninth for the Red Sox with a slashing double to left. He went down to third on Cady's sacrifice, Herzog to Merkle, and was held there while Crandall was throwing out Wood to first. Hooper sent up a little fly to Doyle. Then followed the dramatic climax when the Giants made a run and failed to win on what promised to be a successful rally.

Summary: Two-base hits, Doyle, Hooper, Wagner; three-base hits, Speaker. Hits off Tesreau, 5 in seven innings; Crandall, one in two innings. Sacrifice hits, Hooper, Cady. Double plays, Stahl to Wood. Left on bases, Boston 6, New York 6. First base on balls, off Tesreau, 4; Wood, 2. First base on errors, Boston 1; New York, 1. Hit by pitcher, by Wood, Meyers. Struck out by Tesreau, 4; Crandall, 2; Wood, 11. Time, 1:10. Umpires, at plate, Klem; on bases, Evans; left field, O'Loughlin; right field, Rigler.

It was learned tonight that Wagner, the Boston shortstop, hurt his hand when Murray slid into second and was touched out by Wagner in the third inning. Wagner continued playing, however, and it is not believed the injury will prove serious.

RESTRAINS STRIKERS.

U. S. Judge Orders Trainmen Not to Interfere in Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 8.—Judge Grubb, of the United States District Court, has issued an order restraining the 300 striking trainmen and conductors of the Georgia Railroad from interfering with the transportation of the mails and inter-State freight over that system, according to a message from W. S. Brand, superintendent of the Georgia Railroad, published in a local paper.

The dispatch follows:

Judge Grubb, of the United States District Court, upon petition of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company and the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, has issued an order restraining certain named defendants and all other persons who may confederate with or aid them, from interfering with the transportation of the mails and inter-State freight over the lines of the Georgia Railroad.

The message states further that the restraining order will be served upon the parties named in the bill, and the public generally, as soon as copies can be made and placed in the hands of the marshal.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 8.—The board of control of the Atlanta Joint Terminal Company today refused to discharge strike breakers in order to take back the 50 employes who went out on a sympathy strike with the 300 trainmen and conductors of the Georgia Railroad.

The opinion was expressed that reinstatement of the men would have resulted in the immediate settlement of the strike.

It is understood that the following telegram was sent to the Augusta authorities.

"The Atlanta Joint Terminal Company will agree to take back as many of its striking employes as possible without dismissing any of its new employes."

THREE RECORDS BROKEN.

Uhlan, Racing Against Time, Lowers Lou Dillon's Mark.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 8.—Three world's records went by the boards at the opening day of the Kentucky Horse Breeders' Association meeting here today. Uhlan, racing against time, lowered the trotting record held by Lou Dillon for seven years to 1:58 flat. The former record of 1:59 1-2 was made at Memphis. The sixth heat of the Kentucky futurity was won by Manrico in 2:07 1-4, a world's record for a sixth heat.

The aggregate time for the six heats in this race also made a new world's record.

The Tennessee for 2:05 pacers was only a walk-over for Braden Direct.

THREE AMERICANS KILLED.

By Treachery of Drunken Rebels at Surrender of Leon.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Details of the surrender of the town of Leon Sunday by Nicaraguan revolutionists to American marines and sailors under Lieut. Col. Long and the loss of three American lives through the treachery of drunken rebels, were received at the State Department today from Minister Weitzel at Managua. The deaths Sunday brought the total of Americans killed by the rebels to seven, the loss of four at Barranca Hill, on the road to Leon, having been previously reported.

In his advices to Minister Weitzel Rear Admiral Southerland said he expected peace in the Republic within a month. The chief revolutionary bands have been crushed and their leaders captured and exiled.

The men killed at Leon were Roy G. Morgan, turret captain on the Colorado, Los Angeles; George O. Burgess, ordinary seaman, Colorado, Stillwater, Minn., and Marine Private John Bartels, Chicago.

Although three were reported injured, the name of only one, Private Frank Kittsmiller, could be found in the records here.

Those reported wounded, but whose names do not appear in the records, were Lamper, ordinary seaman, Colorado, and Dalder, trumpeter, Marine Company D.

The credit for this successful termination of a most critical condition," said Admiral Southerland, in his report, "is principally due to the firmness, good judgment, ability and tact of Lieut. Col. Long during the month he has had charge of the situation at that place.

"When Col. Long demanded the surrender of Leon, Dr. Espinosa, Gen. Irias and 11 other rebel leaders from Costa Rica applied for protection and passports to leave the country. This was agreed to after the colonel had communicated with Rear Admiral Southerland at Managua, who secured the approval of President Diaz. Then the surrender of the town was announced.

Before the Americans could take possession, however, a band of drunken rebels opened fire upon the Americans, killing the three named. The marines and bluejackets returned the fire and killed about 50 revolutionists.

The marines wounded in the skirmish with the rebels at Chichigalpa last Friday were Corporal Otto Clement, of Elkhart, Ind.; Frank Leroy, of Couer D'Alene, Idaho, and Private Howard Hudson, of Bay City, Mich., and Sergt. James Smith.

STR. BANES ABANDONED.

Crew Picked Up Off Cape Hatteras by Collier Arethusa.

Key West, Fla., Oct. 8.—The Panamaian steamer Banes, 848 tons, bound from Manzanillo, Cuba, for Delaware Breakwater, with cargo of cocoanuts, was abandoned off Cape Hatteras last Friday morning by Capt. Perry and crew of 18 men. They were rescued by the collier Arethusa, which was bound from Hampton Roads for Port Arthur, Texas, for a cargo of oil. The Arethusa arrived here last night with the crew of the ill-fated ship. The Banes encountered severe weather off the Carolina coast last Thursday night and began to leak. The wind was blowing a hurricane and it was impossible to make any headway against the gale. Shifting of the cargo caused the steamer to list to port. Desperately the crew worked at the pumps, but the water kept coming in. Capt. Perry was on the point of putting off to sea in the small boats with his crew when the Arethusa was sighted. The decks of the Banes were only 14 inches above water when they were taken aboard the collier.

New York, Oct. 8.—Eight more warships steamed to anchorages in the Hudson river today in the gradual mobilization of 127 vessels of the Atlantic fleet for the Presidential review Tuesday. The most notable addition was the super-dreadnaught Arkansas. The battleships North Dakota, Virginit and Michigan, the scout cruiser Salem, and the big collier Cyclops also took position for the review.

SEVENTH DISTRICT APPEALS

Interesting Point In Case Before Supreme Court—No Doubt About Carolina-V. P. I. Game In Raleigh—Two Pardons

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 8.—Seventh district appeals were called in the Supreme Court today and the calendar was cleared this afternoon, there being the exceptionally small number of five appeals docketed. Usually this district has twenty-five or more cases. An appeal of special note heard today was McKay vs. Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Co. It is for damages. A forest fire started from a Coast Line engine and the flames spread to the premises of Kate Howell, an aged woman. As she was fighting the fire to keep it from her place her clothing ignited and she was burned to death. The administrator of her estate is suing for the damages. The point of law involved is one that it is said has never been decided in this State. The calendar of appeals for the Seventh district consists of Watson and Ivey vs. Insurance Co.; Raeford vs. Telegraph Co.; McKay vs. Atlantic Coast Line Railroad; Bank of Lumberton vs. Brown; Campbell vs. R. & C. Railroad Co.; Byrd vs. Collins. Attorneys here for the argument of appeals are H. L. Cook and C. G. Rose, Fayetteville; R. C. Lawrence and L. R. Varser, Lumberton.

Local alumni of the University of North Carolina assert today that the University of North Carolina-V. P. I. football game October 26th will be played in Raleigh in spite of reports being circulated to the contrary. While it seems certain that the A. & M. College athletic field cannot be used for the game there is a movement to equip the gridiron at the State Fair grounds by building grandstand and bleachers for the game. It looks like this will be the outcome of the complicated situation.

The Washington Life Insurance Co., of Charlotte, was chartered today with $125,000 capital being specifically for the life insurance department. The capital may be increased to $300,000. The incorporators are Chas. A. Bland, C. O. Kuester, H. M. Victor, J. A. Darwin, E. R. Preston, W. C. Dowd, J. A. Durham, J. B. Oates and others.

Another charter is for The Miller Grocery Co., North Wilkesboro, capital $25,000 by W. W. Miller and others.

The North Carolina Cotton Oil Co., of Raleigh, increases capital from $250,000 to $400,000.

The campaigning in Wake county by the Democratic county and legislative candidates began Monday with speakings to big crowds at Wakelon and at Wendell, two thriving sections of the county that are special Democratic strongholds. Morrisville and Gary heard the candidates Tuesday and on Wednesday there is to be an especially big rally at Fuquay Springs when Congressman E. W. Pou will be on hand for a Congressional campaign speech. The conditions in Wake are fine for an increased Democratic majority. The campaign will be pushed right along in Wake until October 14th, when the State Fair opens. On this account there will be a suspension then until after the fair.

Governor Kitchin issued today pardons for Jack Hamrick, Cleveland county, serving 18 months on the roads for selling whiskey, and Will Cannon, Cabarrus county, serving eight years for second degree murder. The Hambrick pardon is on recommendation of the recorder who sentenced him, who had promised to recommend the pardon after six months' service of sentence if the prisoner would take no appeal. The Cannon pardon is on recommendation of the trial judge, solicitor and officers and citizens of the county. Both are conditioned on future good behavior.

TEDDY IN THE WEST.

Large Crowds Turn Out to Hear Progressive Nominee.

Saginaw, Mich, Oct. 8.—With half a dozen speeches on a day's run across lower Michigan, Colonel Roosevelt today opened his campaign tour through the Middle Western States. He spent the first half of the day in Detroit, then came to Saginaw, making several speeches on the way. Tomorrow he will go across the upper part of the State. Crowds which turned out for Colonel Roosevelt were large and they welcomed him enthusiastically.

Colonel Roosevelt here today defended the Progressive party's "Human Welfare" programme. He criticised Governor Wilson's position and declared for a governmental inquiry nto the conditions of modern industry.

"There are many different kinds of steps necessary for the people to take," said Colonel Roosevelt, "to secure genuine social and industrial justice, but it is absolutely necessary that there shall be governmental action both in the Nation and in the several States, not only in order to get rid of unhealthy industrial conditions but also to build up our working capacity as a nation. We are interested State's rights as such, and nations represented as such.

"We of the Progressive party pledge the resources of the government to lift the load of illiteracy from the young men and girls of the nation.

"Education must not stop merely at the school door; the adult worker must gird himself as he goes along for a larger and more efficient share in the working life of the nation; and vocational training must receive development.

"Mr. Wilson has laid down as a central principle of his position that the history of liberty is the history of the limitation of governmental power, and, so far as Mr. Taft can be said to follow any rule of conduct at all, he takes the same position. This is the attitude taken by every big employer of labor. Mr. Wilson's statement has not one particle of justification in present-day fact."

MRS. RHODES PRESIDENT.

Named Head of State Missionary Association of Universalist Church.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 8.—Mrs. Mary E. Rhodes, of this city, was elected president of the State Missionary Association of the Universalist church, the annual convention of which is being held at Woodington, seven miles from here. Mrs. M. O. Winstead, of Rocky Mount, is the retiring president. The State Missionary Association, composed entirely of the women of the church, includes all the local mission bodies in North Carolina. The reports of the local circles were encouraging, and much charitable work was shown to have been done during the past 12 months. Mrs. Theresa A. Williams, of Washington, D. C., president of the National association, addressed the body, describing the work of the association throughout the country. Rev. Eliza Curtis Everton, of Clinton, spoke on the relations of the women to the church work, an able deliverance which precipitated a lengthy discussion in which the ministers participated. Mrs. M. E. James was made State secretary. The sessions of the State convention proper were presided over by W. H. Williams, of Durham. The sermon was by Rev. Leroy J. Everton, of Clinton, and President Williams addressed the convention. The annual meeting will formally close today, and the delegates, about 75 of whom are in attendance, will begin leaving for their homes this afternoon.

James Francis Webb, more familiarly known as J. Frank Webb, was buried in Maplewood cemetery here yesterday afternoon. Mr. Webb died in the State hospital at Raleigh, and the remains were brought to this city for interment. Mr. Webb was 33 years of age, and was a native of this county, having been born at a country place several miles from Kinston. The greater part of his life was spent here, and he was one of the best known young men of the city, and stood high in the social life of the town. Sent to the State hospital several weeks ago, Mr. Webb's condition grew steadily worse, and the end was not unexpected. Death was the culmination of serious bodily and mental ill health. The following close kin survive: Mr. G. B. Webb, the father; Guy Webb, of Norfolk, brother; Mrs. Chas. E. Loops, of Richmond, sister, and Misses Carrie Lula and Agnes P. Webb, half-sisters. The funeral was conducted by Rev. F. S. Love, of Queen Street Methodist church, at the cemetery.

Reports come from Jones county that the cotton crop in that section will be much shorter this year than last, owing to the ravages of the anthracnose. In some places at least half the crop has been destroyed. Labor, also, is scarce, and the farmers are having a hard time in securing a sufficient number of pickers to get their cotton out of the fields. One hundred and ten bales were sold on the Kinston market Saturday, with prices ranging from 11 to 11.27 1-2.

The county Democratic canvass has been arranged to begin at Sand Hill township on the 16th and culminate at the court house in this city on November 2nd. A barbecue will be served at each meeting in the 12 townships, and prominent local orators will accompany the nominees for House of Representatives and county offices on the trip. The State Senatorial candidates are expected to be with the county candidates in this city on the Saturday preceding the election. Hon. Thomas Settle and Hon. D. H. Blair, Republican nominees for Governor and elector at large, respectively, will speak in the court house here Wednesday, the 9th. They are both good speakers, and though by a preponderant majority a Lenoir county audience would be against them, it will certainly be entertained.

COL. GANTT SELLS OUT

Joseph W. Little, Esq., Takes Over Whiteville News-Reporter

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Oct. 8.—Col. T. Larry Gantt, the genial and clever editor of the Whiteville News-Reporter, has sold his paper to J. W. Little, Esq., of Wilmington. Col. Gantt has not announced what his plans for the future are, but it is understood that he will return to South Carolina where he will feel more at home amid his native haunts. Col. Gantt has been editor of the News-Reporter for over three years, and during that time has consistently advocated those things that make for the upbuilding of the town and county. His many friends throughout the State will regret to know that he has decided to retire from the newspaper field. Mrs. Helen Gantt Mims, who has been connected with the paper for sometime, has assumed active charge of affairs, and will continue as editor. She is a thorough newspaper woman, and will make it one of the best papers in this section.

SAVED FROM ELECTRIC CHAIR.

Verdict of Craven County Jury Set Aside—Second Degree.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 8.—Judge Cline, in Superior Court in Newbern, set aside a first degree verdict by the Craven jury in the case against Test Hill and Charles Moore, negroes, for the murder of Leon Johnson at Dover on the night of September 1st. With their death warrant lying before him and only awaiting his signature to become official, the judge allowed the prisoners to submit to a verdict of murder in the second degree, sentencing them each to a term of 20 years at hard labor in the State's prison. Judge Cline stated that the case had caused him much anxiety, and that ever since the jury had returned its verdict on Friday he had been deliberating whether or not to send the two to the death chair. He believed that they were guilty of the slaying of Johnson, he said, but there was doubt in his mind that the murder had been premeditated. He said that the jury could not have consistently rendered any verdict other than the one they did in view of the way in which the evidence was given. The judge wished that his action in the matter would not be accepted as a reflection on the jury's judgment. Hill, a mere boy, was claimed to have been an accomplice in the killing only, and his counsel sought to have his sentence shortened. Judge Cline did not see the matter in the same light, however, and Hill received the same sentence as Moore. The crime of which the negroes were convicted was an extremely brutal one. Lying in a pool of blood, his throat horribly gashed and the jugular vein severed, Leon Johnson, a white citizen of the little town of Dover, nine miles from this city, was found dead in a road on the night of September 1st. Johnson, it was alleged, had been drinking. Shortly afterwards Charles Moore and Test Hill, two negroes, were dragged from beneath a church in the neighborhood where the corpse was found. They bore evidences of having been in an encounter, and had been drinking. Cringing before the ghastly evidence of their crime in the night, the two denied connection with the murder. They said they had been in an altercation with another white man, who had cut them. So much sentiment was aroused by the brutality of the slaying that Moore and Hill had to be hurriedly carried to the county jail for safekeeping.

Preparations are being made for the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of Kinston on next Monday night, its first anniversary. The session will probably be held in the rooms of the Commercial Club, in the First National Bank building. A prominent speaker will address the business men on this occasion, and an informal smoker will be the social entertainment of the evening. The principal business to come before the chamber will be a review of the city's progress during the past year, and the annual election of officers. President C. Felix Harvey will preside.

Geo. E. Kornegay, of this city, has an apple tree in the garden at his home on Caswell street that has on it some nearly matured apples of the third crop for this season.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

Is Guaranteed by
ROBT. R. BELLAMY, Special Agent.

Nearly everyone has dandruff, and must reconcile themselves to the idea of becoming completely bald or resort to the use of Newbro's Herpicide.

The manufacturers have absolute faith in Herpicide to kill the germ and remove all traces of dandruff. So perfect is this belief that all dealers are instructed to sell the preparation with a "money back" agreement.

Such supreme confidence is the best evidence in the world of the merit of Herpicide. They know the result, hence the guarantee. It protects the purchaser.

Used as directed, Newbro's Herpicide kills the germ that causes dandruff and prevents the hair from coming out. It stops itching of the scalp, which is so disagreeable.

Send 10c in postage or silver for sample and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich.

Herpicide is for sale by all druggists, and applications may be obtained at good barber shops.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the
WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC.,
Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Wednesday, October 9, 1912.

Stop the clock. The World Series is or are on.

A scratcher is a very independent sort of an individual.

The majority of all the white men in the United States always have been Democrats.

The likeness of Gen. Grant will be on the new $10,000 bills. We will give $1,000 for one of those bills with the least flaw anywhere on it.

What has come of the old fashioned gentleman who hunted up those who lied on him and made them "eat their words" or "take what was coming to them?"

The tariff does not regulate prices, but it affects the prices of either manufactures or farm products. The tariff even affects the prices of products on which there is no tariff.

Whiskers are coming back into fashion. Some fellow with a hatchet face or a chin shaped like a door knob evidently is trying to start something to hide his face. Some men have to have whiskers.

Taft calls his immediate opponent "the third term candidate". The President seems to know when a candidate is running for a third term in defiance of the traditional sentiment of the American people, both Republicans and Democrats.

What has become of the honor among gentlemen that would make them apologize to those whom they had honestly misrepresented? Many a man with blue eyes has changed them for a pair of black eyes for persisting in not making the honorable amende.

Roosevelt managed his own campaign in 1904, but the Republican New York Tribune says he took good pains to manage it "with his back carefully turned towards the collection of the wherewithal." That indicates a cunning that stresses the necessity of proving an alibi if charges should happen to be made.

During the campaign Sunny Jim has not made any speeches, owing to the advice of his physician. Probably the Vice President called in a doctor for the purpose of helping him save his face. Making speeches is disagreeable to Republicans when they have to either favor the Bull Moose or expose him in order to help Taft.

Finnaciers who give $100,000 to $180,000 out of their own pockets to elect a President are not in the habit of blowing in wads like that without knowing what they were doing. They knew on what side their bread was buttered and they gave that money to elect a President who they knew would not take any butter off their bread.

The Bull Moose finally had to confess that the slush fund scandal when he was elected in 1904, is a revelation to him. The trouble with him was that during and since the campaign eight years ago he made no effort to gain "personal knowledge" of the facts. There are some things that we studiously and purposely avoid knowing either before or after they happen.

Col. Roosevelt called several men liars about the Standard Oil money that helped to elect him, but when the proof was forthcoming in spite of his denials he shifted the blame to Cortelyou, Bliss and Sheldon. Some men do not hesitate to take the blame for others, but when a small calibred man consents to be made a catspaw he is willing to keep his mouth shut and let it go at that.

TO PUT A STOP TO CORRUPTION.

If there is any National purpose which should have the unanimous and hearty approbation of every honest man in America, it is that which is being pursued by the Clapp committee, which is in session at Washington investigating the slush fund scandals of our past National elections. The probe is being inserted without regard to whom it hurts, and recent revelations show that it has hit the quick in the man who was elected President in 1904. That election marked the high tide of corruption in American politics and right at that time and for many years prior thereto, the Democratic party and its leaders were strenuously demanding that if a stop could not be put to it, publicity should be given to campaign subscriptions and expenditures, in order to open the eyes of Americans.

While President Roosevelt was being elected as the beneficiary of the most scandalous slush fund ever heard of in the history of the world, he was pretending to favor publicity. However, he declared for publicity after elections and the Democrats, seeing that it would be too late to shut the stable after the horse was gone, urged publicity both before and after elections. That policy is now in operation, and the Republic can thank the Democratic party for effecting that much reform by agitation.

Even to make a statement showing how much money a candidate spends is not the right kind of publicity. The people want to know where they get the money and what it is spent for. The weakness and inefficiency of the publicity in effect in 1904 and since was never more palpably demonstrated than in the fact that we are just now getting some of the publicity that the people were entitled to eight years ago. Who kept the lid on all these years? Well, who?

The work of the Clapp committee is nothing but publicity, belated publicity, and the investigation would not have been necessary had full publicity been heretofore given. For years the Democratic press has been preaching publicity and the papers have made the slush fund business such a stench in the nostrils of the people that we now have all parties committed to publicity and reform. The Nation and many of the States have adopted publicity acts and among them is North Carolina, we are rejoiced to say. We believe in turning on the light, and starting a procession to the penitentiary if it should become necessary.

We are extremely gratified that the Clapp committee is at work in Washington and we don't care a rap who it hits. However, it has hit exactly where it ought to hit, for there is now laid before the country a condition of debauchery that was dangerous to the life and integrity of the Nation. The disclosures show how monstrous was the crime of the Republican party in corrupting elections with money subscribed by lawless trusts. The treasurer of the Republican campaign committee himself has testified to the fact that 73 1-2 per cent. of the Roosevelt slush fund was subscribed by trusts and special interests. No doubt the other 26 1-2 per cent. was subscribed by those who were either directly or remotely beneficiaries of the Republican tariff.

The New York World, in commenting upon the disclosures at Washington, expresses the belief that the day of trust control of elections is over. Let us hope so, and it matters not that the man who prates so about honesty and patriotism will go down in history as the most notable example of the partnership heretofore in existence between the government and the tariff beneficiaries of Republicanism. We are sorry about the fact, but we are glad that the truth has come to light at last. The World says:

"If the way were clear for the repetition of such scandals; if a Vice President-elect of the United States could joke about the use of "soap" to carry Indiana, "which was really, I suppose, a Democratic State," as Arthur did in 1880; if a Dudley, as in 1888 could say 'divide the floaters into blocks of five' and see that none get away, and that all vote our ticket' for bribe money; if a Harriman, as in 1904, could collect $260,000 from illegal trusts and hopeful financiers and 'turn 50,000 votes' in New York for Roosevelt and a Higgins—such revelations of shameless debauchery of political action by corruption funds as the Clapp committee has elicited might only inspire despair. But we have come a long road since 1904. Since Judge Parker charged that 'the trusts are furnishing the money with which they hope to control the election,' and since President Roosevelt first misstated Judge Parker's true charge and then denounced it as 'unqualifiedly and atrociously false,' the corrupt use of money in elections has received blow upon blow. Its days are numbered."

Well, if they are not numbered the American people ought put an end to it with a popular iron heel.

MAJOR STEDMAN ON THE STUMP

Few men in North Carolina politics are so effective on the stump as Major Charles Manly Stedman, formerly of Wilmington but now the distinguished Congressman from the Fifth district. Major Stedman has served one term at Washington and is the Democracy's nominee to succeed himself in this election. That he will be elected we have no doubt, for he is making powerful campaign speeches for the Democracy and there is no man in the State more eloquent in appeal or persuasive in argument. Major Stedman is a man of imposing dignity and one of his lofty type and method of campaigning can but turn many an honest Republican from the party which has disrupted itself from the weight of its own folly and the result of its debauchery.

The Republican party is divided against itself for powerful reasons furnished by both Roosevelt and Taft, so that this is a crisis in which every honest and patriotic Republican should lend his aid to a trustworthy party which proposes to set the Nation's house in order. Major Stedman spoke a few days ago at Reidsville, and Webster's Weekly says:

"Mayor Womack, who excels in introducing Democratic speakers, made a gem of a speech in presenting Major Stedman. He referred to him as a typical representative of the grandest civilization the world has ever known, and said it was not surprising to know that he was the most popular man in Congress.

"Major Stedman gave an account of his stewardship, explaining at length the leading measures passed by the 62nd Congress, showing he had kept the faith. He said he had stood with his party on every vote and was proud of its record. He discussed the tariff in a masterly way, saying he had fought protection and special privilege for forty years and now saw victory in sight.

"The distinguished speaker sketched with the hand of an artist the three National conventions and their nominees. Taft undoubtedly received a stolen nomination, whereas the proof is clear that Roosevelt tried to get it by bribery. The Bull Moose convention was a one-man affair, representing nothing but Roosevelt's vanity and ambition. The Democratic convention was the most representative gathering of the people that has ever assembled. Three distinguished men contested for the nomination, but there was never an hour when Clark or Underwood could have wrested the prize from Wilson, who was raised up by Almighty God for this crisis. Major Stedman said one wing of the Republican party was led by a man without ability and the other by a man without character, which he proved by testimony of the warring leaders themselves. He said there was nothing for decent Republicans to do but stand aside or vote with their Democratic friends, and he was persuaded that thousands of them would do the latter. He painted a rosy picture of Democratic prospects and closed with an eloquent description of the gathering of the clans next March to inaugurate Woodrow Wilson.

At the conclusion of his speech Major Stedman was showered with congratulations. The grand old man had surpassed himself."

Mayor Womack's introduction fits Major Stedman as his hundreds of friends of the Cape Fear have known him for the greater part of an honorable career as citizen, lawyer and public man. Major Stedman's years sit lightly upon him and the sparkle and vigor of the man remain within him. It is fortunate for North Carolina that an example of his type is here to be one of the leaders in restoring the American government to its people.

Major Stedman is a magnificent campaigner and we shall never forget how in the 90's he went from the seashore to the mountains bidding "farewell to Oliver Dockery."

WE MUST EXPORT CORN

The United States is doing an immense business in the way of feeding Europe and furnishing to the world the cotton for certain qualities of its clothing. Cotton is the South's great article of export, wheat grown in the Northwest pours by the shipload to Europe, and meat and packing house products are furnished by the West in great values for foreign consumption. These, of course, are only a few of our exports, and while the South's cotton furnishes more than fifty per cent of the value of our exports, we ought to be doing with corn what the West is doing with wheat.

The late Dr. Knapp, the most eminent expert of the United States Department of Agriculture, emphasized the peculiar adaptibilities of the South for corn growing when he left on record the declaration that the home of Indian corn is the South. The plant matures better here on account of our long growing season, and those same long seasons furnish the natural means of more thoroughly and most effectively drying the crop for home consumption or export.

Since Dr. Knapp and his eminent son have shown us how to produce from 60 to upwards of 100 bushels of corn per acre, we should turn it to good account and add corn to the South's exports. Europe has to be fed and there is already in that country a large and growing demand for American corn. The South should have its share of that trade and we expect to see the South exporting its surplus corn like the West does with its surplus wheat. Louisiana already has become a corn exporting State and she is showing us what we can and must ultimately do. We must do our part towards feeding an increasing population in this country and contribute our share of the food products that we are sending to Europe. Louisiana is now producing from 60,000,000 to 75,000,000 bushels of corn a year, and she is now exporting a high grade corn to Europe.

Professor H. M. Cottrill, agricultural commissioner of the Rock Island Railroad, tells the New Orleans States that "Louisiana is sending to Europe the best quality of corn that goes there from the United States. He speaks from a knowledge gained from many years' experience in the study of corn cultivation. "Louisiana corn," says Prof. Cottrell, in a statement which he is distributing through the West, "is thoroughly sun-dried and when ready for the market contains 12 to 15 per cent of water, the driest corn in the United States. This dryness gives Louisiana corn its special advantage in European markets, as it is the principal factor in preventing deterioration in ocean shipments."

Prof. Cottrell points out that an expert grower can average sixty bushels of thoroughly dried corn to the acre, proof of which he cites in the fact that thirty members of the Louisiana Boys' Corn Club averaged from 100 to 158 bushels to the acre. This same result has been obtained in North Carolina, and in becoming a corn exporting State Louisiana has set us the pace.

There we are. Dr. Knapp and Professor Cottrill furnish the South with the very best publicity for its corn product, and the South must profit by it. The facts they have stated would prepare Europe to prefer Southern corn.

We do not see why a Democrat should have to explain himself for voting against Taft's reciprocity bill. It was purely a Republican measure and was as much a special interest scheme as the highest schedule in the Aldrich-Payne tariff bill. A statement by President J. J. Hill, of the Northern Pacific Railroad, expressing regret at the defeat of reciprocity, showed what interests were behind President Taft in seeking free trade with Canada. When a Republican favors free trade, look for the joker in it. Democrats ought not to be so far behind the times as to hark back to Canadian reciprocity, one thing which more than anything else probably will cause many of the Northwestern and Middle Western States to vote against the Democracy in this election.

With the National election only a few weeks off, Roosevelt is still saying Taft is not fit to be President again. Taft continues to declare that Roosevelt is unfit and dangerous and that he faked up 200 contests at Chicago to get out of them enough votes to secure the Republican nomination. No one is saying that Wilson has a single disqualification. The way to vote right is to vote for the man who stands before the people without a single flaw.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Grand Old Cone Johnson is speaking in New York for the profess., and the heathen Republicans are tramping all over Cone's corns in their eagerness to shake his horny hand and assure him of their conversion.—Columbia State.

It looks as though the Republicans think there might be something over this way in the shape of votes, for, with Mr. Meares here tomorrow night, the Hon. Tom comes here next week. We guess the Atlantic Coast Line or the hotels will get the lion's share for these gentlemen will pay transportation fares and hotel bills.—Rocky Mount Telegram, Oct. 7.

From 1900 to 1910 the population of the United States increased about 15,000,000. In the same period the total number of standard meat animals decreased 19,716,000. There were 5,916,000 fewer beef cattle, 9,100,000 fewer sheep and 1,700,00 fewer hogs. That is the explanation packers and stock raisers give for the increase in the price of meats, and it is valid. At the same time, American-raised meats sell in England for less than in the United States. In August, according to the Springfield Republican, American sirloin of beef sold in London for 19 1-2 cents, when New York had to pay 28 cents. The reason for the discrepancy is that in the London markets our meats compete with those from South America and have to be sold at South American prices. The New York Journal of Commerce states that consular records show that Argentina, with a population of only 7,172,000, has 29,124,000 beef cattle, 67,384,000 sheep, 1,204,281 hogs—more than 13 1-2 meat animals per capita. Uruguay, with a population of 1,400,000, has 8,200,000 beef cattle, 25,000,000 sheep, 500 hogs—24 per capita. The United States is said to have less than two per capita. Yet, as the Baltimore Sun puts the case, "we will not open the door to countries which have plenty of cattle and can supply cheaper beef, pork and mutton." England imports almost all of her meats; ours we raise. Prices, however, are lower in England than in America. England places no tariff on meats. We do, and the packing and distribution are to a great degree controlled by a trust powerful enough to fix prices.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

The aggressive action of Admiral Southerland in storming and capturing Coyotepe, the rebel stronghold, near Masaya, with his marines and bluejackets, on Friday last, and the present movement against Leon, will doubtless convince the most doubtful that President Taft was serious in his purpose when he assumed charge of the Nicaraguan situation, and dispatched an expeditionary naval force to abate the nuisance, which has for three years directly or indirectly caused this government no end of annoyance and embarrassment. The tactful and firm manner in which Admiral Southerland has managed this very difficult situation merits the fullest approbation. He has done naught save that warranted by law and necessity, supported by the dictates of humanity and public opinion, and what he has done will work an immediate and quieting influence on those political parasites who have so vociferously protested against American "interference", in the vain hope that their plundering of an almost destitute people might be continued indefinitely. With the exception of Guatemala, in which Republic the government and people have with gratifying directness given to the United States their warmest approval of its attitude, a majority of the people of Central America do not yet realize the unselfish motives that have prompted President Taft in so sternly suppressing the rebellious movement in Nicaragua, but they will doubtless come to a sense of appreciation when they witness, as they soon will, the establishment of a clean, strong, self-sustaining government in that unhappy country.—Washington Post.

WILLING TO TAKE OATH

As to the Truthfulness of Statements in Beneath Letter, Says Mrs. Cook.

Denison, Texas.—"You may print any statement from this letter you please," writes Mrs. Jess Cook, of 207 1-2 Main street, this city, "and I am willing to swear to its truthfulness.

On the third of April I had an operation performed for womanly trouble, thinking that would make me well.

In a few weeks after the operation, I got down again, and I was advised to have another operation. I would not listen to this.

Having heard so much about Cardui, the woman's tonic, I decided I would try it.

I have taken only seven bottles, and believe I am a well woman. Have no pains at all, and the other trouble has disappeared. Have gained both in health and strength.

My weight now is 149 pounds. Before taking Cardui, it was 105 pounds.

I really know that I am well, but keep a bottle of Cardui in the house all the time, for use in case I need it.

Several of my lady friends are already taking Cardui on my advice, and I wish all other suffering women would try it."

Cardui will surely do as much for you, as it did for the writer of the above letter, if you will only give it a trial.

If you are sick, it may be just the medicine you need.

INVESTIGATED BY CORONER

Inquiry Held Into Circumstances of the Death of Negro Who Was Run Over by Street Car—Motorman Released.

Following the verdict of the coroner's jury, assembled to inquire into the circumstances of the death of Henry Brinkley, colored, who was run down and killed by a Carolina Place car on Princess street, near 15th, Monday night, the motorman of the car, Mr. John W. Laclear, who had surrendered himself and required to give $200 bond, was released last evening shortly after 6 o'clock by Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner. The jury found that the negro came to his death by walking immediately in front of the car. The responsibility, therefore, was placed entirely with the man who was killed.

The jury convened at 4 o'clock and it was shortly after 6 o'clock before all the witnesses had been examined and the verdict rendered. Mr. J. C. King was foreman and Mr. L. W. Moore secretary, while the other members were Messrs. N. E. Gallagher, R. H. Reville, W. F. Rushing, E. M. Bryan. The motorman of the car, Mr Laclear, who gave himself up to Dr. Bell immediately after the accident and was released over night under $200 bond, was represented at the inquest by counsel, L. Clayton Grant, Esq., appearing for him.

The verdict of the jury in substance was that "Henry Brinkley came to his death at about 14th and Princess streets, 7:20 P. M., October 7th, 1912, by being struck by Carolina Place car, west-bound, due to said Henry Brinkley walking immediately in front of said car."

The most important testimony given before the jury, as appears from the notes of the secretary, is given below.

Mr. E. O. Allen, conductor of the car which ran over the negro, testified as follows: "Friday night, 7:15, left 17th and Dock streets and at 7:20 motorman stopped car so suddenly I went to front of car and asked the trouble. He stated that the car had knocked a man down. We got down and went back and found man lying in ditch dead. The car ran about a car length after it struck him. The motorman blew the regular road crossing at 15th street and when he did I rang bell for stop at 13th street. The motorman answered my bell with whistle signal. The car was running not over eight miles an hour. The car was equipped with a headlight that will show object 1,000 feet ahead."

The motorman, Mr. John W. Laclear, voluntarily offered himself as a witness, and testified as follows: "When I left 17th and Dock I had to run slow around 17th and Princess streets, coming west. When I neared 15th street, which is a pretty bad crossing, I slowed my car and blew crossing signal and when I passed there I sped my car up to sixth or seventh point. The car had a good headlight and I could see people at 13th street. As I neared Mocomber's ditch a man stepped on the track. The first thing I did was to cut off my current and put car in emergency brake at the same time. If I had had only three second more I would not have struck him. He was coming on track out of ditch when he appeared. He was about eight or ten feet ahead of the car. I was running about 10 or 12 miles an hour."

James Hayes testified that he got on the car at 17th and Princess streets and that the whistle of the car was not blown before the car reached the point of the accident. He said that the car stopped a few feet beyond the place where the man was run over.

J. C. Long, a landscape foreman, testified that he was a passenger on the car and that his attention was attracted by the motorman blowing his whistle a long time as the car was about at Macomber's ditch. C. A. King was also a passenger and he testified to the stopping of the car, finding of the body, etc.

Yesterday morning in Superior Court Judge Frank Carter called attention to the fact that Deputy Sheriff W. B. Savage, who is also a special officer of the Tidewater Power Company, had been authorized by Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, to summons jurors for the inquiry. Both Dr. Bell and Mr. Savage had lost sight of the fact that the latter was placed in the attitude of acting in a dual capacity. Mr. Savave has been an officer of the county for a number of years and has frequently summoned the jurors for the coroner. It was with the idea of aiding the coroner that he offered his services for this purpose Monday night. Judge Carter stated that no one except the coroner, not even the sheriff himself, has the right to summons witnesses and jurors for a coroner's inquest. It has been the custom in this county for a number of years for police officers and deputy sheriffs to aid the coroner in summoning witnesses and jurors. This custom will now be changed, following the instructions of Judge Carter.

FIRE PREVENTION DAY.

Wilmington May Observe It by Passing an Ordinance.

There will be no formal observance in Wilmington today of Fire Prevention Day, so designated and set apart by State Insurance Commissioner J. R. Young. It has been suggested that Wilmington could not do anything better on this day than to secure the adoption by the City Council, in regular session this morning, of an ordinance prohibiting the erection of any more buildings with wooden roofs anywhere in the city. Chief Chas. Schnibben, of the fire department, may appear before Council this morning and ask for an ordinance providing for this. It is said that Savannah has an ordinance of this character and that it has been the means of greatly reducing the fire loss in that city and enables the citizens to secure a better insurance rate.

LONG SESSION OF COURT

Number of Defendants Before the Recorder Yesterday—Several Go to Roads for Vagrancy—Whiskey Cases.

The Recorder had an unusually large number of defendants before him yesterday morning and the session was rather interesting as well as lengthy. Several negroes faced the Recorder on a charge of violating the prohibition law and in one of the two cases heard the defendant was sentenced to three months on the county roads. Four negro women went to the county farm for 30 days for vagrancy.

Those going to the farm for vagrancy were Henrietta Hicks, Julia Moore, Mary Bishop, Cornelia Howard. Queen Victoria, a frequent defendant in the police court, was found not guilty of a similar charge, being able to establish by witnesses that she is at work. A case against Chauncey Taylor, colored, charged with vagrancy, was nol prosed with leave as the defendant is wanted in Wallace to answer the far more serious offense of house-breaking. A nol pros was also taken in a case against Louis Robinson, colored, charged with vagrancy. The police held him for several days in the hope that they would be able to connect him with a recent house-breaking in the city, but they could not secure any evidence against him.

Elias Hines and J. Evans, colored, employed in the city sanitary department, were charged with obstructing the sidewalk at Fourth and Howard streets by leaving a horse and wagon on the sidewalk for a few minutes at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The Recorder suspended judgment in both cases.

E. D. Miller, colored, pleaded guilty to a charge of violating the prohibition law and was sentenced to three months on the county roads. There is another case against him for a similar offense, but this was continued. A case against Della Cobb, a negro woman, charged with violating the prohibition law, was investigated, but left open for judgment. The principal witness against the woman is Julia Mumford, who also has the main witness in the cases against Miller. The Mumford woman testified that she bought a bottle of whiskey from Della Cobb and Plainclothesman Leon George testified that he saw her make the purchase. The defendant on the other hand testified that it was true that she gave the woman the whiskey and received the money, but that the whiskey belonged to a man named Joe, who was in another room of the house at the time and asked her to make the livery of the stuff for him. Taking her own statement to be correct she is technically guilty of the charge. She has a small baby and this fact makes it rather puzzling to the Recorder as to what disposition to make of the case. She was before the Recorder only recently on some charge and out of consideration for the child the Recorder suspended judgment in that case.

Joe Bowman, colored, plead guilty to a charge of assault on a female and prayer for judgment was continued, the defendant paying the costs. Geo. Murray, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was required to pay the costs.

SUPERIOR COURT YESTERDAY.

Case of Craig Against the City Will Reach Jury This Morning.

The major portion of yesterday in Superior Court was taken up with the trial of the case of Mrs. Sarah E. Craig and husband, Chas. Craig, against the city of Wilmington, an action for $5,000 damages for alleged injuries received by the plaintiff, Mrs. Craig, when she fell on the sidewalk on Castle street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, in November, 1910. She alleges that a defect in the sidewalk caused her to fall and sprain her ankle. John D. Bellamy & Son represent the plaintiff, while City Attorney Herbert McClammy and Assistant City Attorney Geo. L. Peschau appear for the city. The taking of testimony and argument of counsel was completed before court adjourned last night. Judge Carter will deliver his charge the first thing this morning and the case will then be given to the jury.

When court reconvened yesterday morning the trial of the case of Joseph Berbary against Tombacker & Banov was resumed. It went to the jury about 12 o'clock and a short time later a verdict was returned in favor of the plaintiff for $504.23, less $82, the amount of a counterclaim held by the defendant. The amount sued for by the plaintiff was $850.

Wm. Warring, colored, was granted a divorce from his wife, Annie Bell Warring. The case of Jos. H. Watters against Young & Fussell was continued. Upon motion of Robt. Ruark, Esq., counsel for the defendant, the case of S. S. Beery against the Waccamaw Lumber Co., was removed to the United States District Court, the defendant being a foreign corporation and the amount sued for being over $2,000.

When the Craig case is given to the jury this morning, the case of R. N. Carney against M. J. Heyer will be taken up. The plaintiff, who was janitor at the Southern Building, is suing for $20,000 for alleged injuries received when he fell through the elevator shaft at the Southern Building about two years ago. The case will be hard fought on both sides.

CARNIVAL OF ATTRACTIONS

Number of Events Are Scheduled for Highwood Park Today—Races This Afternoon—Two Balloon Ascensions.

The management of the carnival of attractions being given this week at Highwood Park announced last night that several thousand people are expected to visit the grounds today and tonight. Although yesterday was really the opening day and there were no free attractions, there were several hundred people on the grounds. The free attractions will be given today and tonight the programme will be featured by what promises to be the biggest fireworks display ever put on in this part of the State.

The features promised for today are: Two balloon ascensions, one at 11 A. M. and the other at 3:30 P. M., starting from a point east of the grandstand; horse races with several entries beginning at 2:30 P. M., with motorcycle races with eight entries and trick bicycle stunts immediately following. Tonight, beginning at 8 o'clock, in front of the grandstand will be given what the management says will be the greatest display of fireworks ever attempted in this part of the State. The fireworks will continue for two hours, closing at 10 o'clock. It is said that this feature alone has cost the management not less than $500. This will be the first night the grounds have been opened and doubtless several thousand people will attend from the city.

Today is Brunswick county day at Highwood Park and the management expects a large attendance from that county. The crowds will come by railroad and by private conveyances.

The banner day of the series of events will be tomorrow, it is expected, for then the United States troops from Fort Caswell will be present. The soldiers will take part in a parade in the city during the day and in the afternoon will fight a sham battle in front of the grandstand. None will attempt to say that a sham battle is not worth the while and it is expected that this feature will attract several thousand from the city and section. The fireworks will be repeated again tomorrow night. There will also be horse racing tomorrow afternoon and Congressman H. L. Godwin will add to the occasion by delivering an address on the grounds.

It must be admitted that the affair has been a disappointment to the management and patrons alike in respect to the exhibits. There is only a sprinkling of exhibits—not enough to justify the affair being called an agricultural fair. There are not as many shows on midway as had been expected nor are they of the type that one would prefer to see on an occasion of this kind. However, with the shows that are offered, barring some, the horse races, the balloon ascensions, motorcycle races, trick bicycle stunts, and elaborate display of fireworks the management is confident that it more than gives the patrons the value of the price of admission—25 cents.

The Tidewater Power Company ran extra cars to the grounds yesterday and a most convenient schedule will be given today.

The motorcycle races which were to have been held yesterday were postponed for the reason that there were not enough motorists on the grounds to make it interesting, but those who were present did some classy stunts in the speed line while practicing. Mr. Pickard the promoter of the motorcycle and bicycle races, said last night that the races would be held today. The bicycle race will be held at 4 and the motorcycle race immediately after the bicycle race. The prizes are $15 for the bicycle and $35 for the motorcycle. There were some new entries yesterday, which makes a total of eight.

Vice Consul Receives Further Instructions From Washington

Following the message of a few days ago calling home certain Greeks to aid their country in the fight against the Turks, Mr. D. G. Vafiadi the Royal Vice Consul for Greece for North and South Carolina, yesterday received from the Greek ambassador at Washington, a further decree reading as follows:

"Washington, D. C., Oct. 7, 1912.

"Mr. D. G. Vafiadi, Consul Greece, Wilmington, N. C.

"By a new decree it is allowed the enrollment of volunteers, from those whose enlistments were not drawn or those belonging to series that have not yet been called.

Mr. Vafiadi states that inasmuch as he cannot communicate with all the Greeks in the Carolinas personally he would like for them to consider the notices in the newspapers as official.

MAY BREAK "SOLID SOUTH."

Wilson Loses Three Electoral Votes. Result of Misunderstanding.

Baton Rouge, La., Oct. 8.—The Solid South may be broken this year and Woodrow Wilson may lose three of Louisiana's electoral votes as a result of a misunderstanding due to the recent re-districting of the State, according to political leaders at the capital.

The Federal statutes require a residence in the district sought to be represented by each candidate for elector except in the case of the two electors at large. It is pointed out that the list filed by the Democratic party shows that three Congressional districts are not represented by candidates resident therein. Time for filing nominations expired Monday and leaders of the Progressive party asserted today they would oppose any effort of the Democrats to correct their error.

REPUBLICANS OF BRUNSWICK

Ex-Sheriff Walker Nominated to House of Representatives and W. D. Lewis for Sheriff—Other Officers Nominated.

The Republican convention of Brunswick county was held yesterday at Lockwood's Folly with quite a large attendance and with the exception of several contests over the nomination for the office of sheriff and member of the Legislature, everything passed off quietly, the Roosevelt-Taft fight being ignored. Clerk of the Superior Court in Brunswick is a Democrat, but the other officers in county are now held by Republicans and the party is remaining united in the hope of carrying the county again this Fall.

Ex-Sheriff D. R. Walker, chairman of the county executive committee, called the convention to order. Mr. C. Ed Taylor, who has represented Brunswick in the Legislature on several occasions, was made permanent chairman. After listening to a speech of about an hour in length by Hon. John E. Fowler, of Clinton, at one time member of Congress from the Third Congressional District, the convention got down to business. Ex-Sheriff Walker, of Town Creek; Rev. Dempsey Hewett, of Shallotte, and Col. H. J. White, of Southport, were all placed in nomination for House of Representatives, Sheriff Walker receiving the nomination. By far the hottest fight in the convention was over the nomination for sheriff, Sheriff Knox being the only one of the present county officers who stood for re-nomination. His apponents were W. D. Lewis, of Winnabow and W. A. Mintz, of Waccamaw township. W. D. Lewis was nominated on the first ballot, getting a fraction over 17 votes out of a total of 32. Neither John J. Jenrette, register of deeds, nor George Brooks, treasurer, would allow their names to be presented for renomination, and for the former office John A. Ceanley, of Shallotte, was nominated, and for treasurer, W. A. Long, of Regan. S. W. McKeithan, of Shallotte, was nominated for surveyor. Members of the old board of county commissioners did not stand for renomination and those nominated were Messrs. W. F. Drew, Southport; Elisha Sellers, Supply, and J. D. Andrews, Waccamaw.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

Several Deeds Were Filed for Record At Court House Yesterday

Deeds were filed for record yesterday, as follows:

Wm. Bryant and wife to W. A. McGowan and wife, for $1,000 and other considerations, lot on Church street, 55 feet west of Seventh, 27 1-2x152 feet in size.

Geo. L. Bryan and wife to Mamie E. DeCover, for $100 and other considerations, 3.36 acres of land in Harnett township, the same being on the north side of the Wilmington, Wrightsville turnpike, opposite the northeast corner of the race track fence.

D. N. Chadwick, Jr., to Owen Goodwin and Kate Goodwin, for $10 and other considerations, lot on north side of Meares street, 99 feet west of 17th street, 66x91.5 feet in size.

Nellie P. Harvell and husband, T. H. Harvell, to B. S. Reynolds and G. M. Willetts, of Johnson county, and C. U. Harvell, of Brunswick county, for $1,000 and other considerations, 805 acres of land on the Cape Fear and Black rivers, lying partly in New Hanover and partly in Pender county.

Solomon Sternberger and wife to Chas. C. Chadbourn, for $100 and other considerations, lot on west side of 11th street, 132 feet north of Wright, 66x165 feet in size.

ADDITIONAL IMPROVEMENTS.

Further Expenditure of Large Sums at Sunset Park is Authorized.

The board of directors of the Fidelity Trust & Development Company held a meeting at the offices of the company yesterday afternoon, practically the entire board being present.

The directors expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the public's enthusiastic acceptance of Sunset Park, and an additional immediate expenditure of $100,000 in improvements was authorized. This will be principally applied to the extension of Northern Boulevard through to the river, and the construction of Riverside Drive and parkway and several cross streets.

The board also confirmed the contracts executed last week with the Tidewater Power Company, for the early extension of electric lights, gas and street car service to Sunset Park.

Brooklyn Baptist Revival.

Rev. J. W. Ham was heard at Brooklyn Baptist church last night by a large and attentive congregation. He preached a strong sermon and his hearers were greatly aroused. This afternoon he will preach on "The Second Coming of Christ," and will discuss the seven dispensations. The hour of Sunday School next Sunday is changed from 4 to 3:30 on account of the fact that Mr. Ham will deliver an address in the church to young men at 4:30 P. M.

Collection of Taxes.

Sheriff S. P. Cowan announces that he will be at the following places for collection of taxes for 1912: Capps' store, Masonboro township, Monday, November 11th; Lighthouse, Harnett township, Tuesday, November 12th, 9 A. M. to 1 P. M.; Seagate, Harnett township, November 12th, 2 to 5 P. M.; Seven-Mile-Post, Harnett township, Wednesday, November 13th; Biddle's store, Federal Point, Thursday, November 14th; Castle Haynes, Cape Fear township, Friday, November 15th.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 8.—Frank Rhofon, second baseman on the Knoxville team of the Apalachian League, died this afternoon at Jefferson City, Tenn. He had just undergone an abdominal operation and his heart action ceased before he had rallied from under the influence of the anaesthetic. He had played in the Southern, South Atlantic, Central, Cotton States and Southeastern Leagues.

THIRD LECTURE BY DR. CHAFER

"God Clothes Man With His Own Righteousness as Part of Salvation." Subject Last Night—Church Was Well Filled.

"God Clothes Man With His Own Righteousness as a Part of Salvation," was the subject of the Bible lecture by Rev. L. S. Chafer, at the First Presbyterian church last night. The church was well filled and the congregation listened with breathless stillness to the deepest truths of the Bible.

In opening this third lecture on "So Great Salvation," Mr. Chafer stated: "The death of Christ was for every man that cometh into the world and we can freely tell every man that Christ really died for him. This, however, does not save him; for salvation is the thing that God is free to do to a person because of what Christ has already done for that person. Salvation is not alone the subtraction of sin by the cross; it is the great additions God is free to bestow because the sin question has been dealt with. When we personally accept the death of Christ as the basis of our hope God then lavishes His Grace upon us and places us in all the great positions in which the believer is seen to stand when saved. It is beyond all challenge of the law.

"This is where every believer stands. It is that marvelous position beyond our own execution wherein all our condemnation has been fully met in the death of Christ for us.

"When we stand in the position of grace, God begins at once to satisfy His own love for us and we find about 25 great blessings are named in the Bible as the immediate gifts of God. The first to be mentioned is the perfect standing in the righteousness of God.

"There is an important distinction between a Christian's standing and his state. Standing is what God constitutes us to be by virtue of Christ's death for us. State is what we are by virtue of our daily life. In our standing God clothes us with His own righteousness. This is not man's morality, or anything man can make. It is distinctly said to be what God makes. We are made the righteousness of God in Him (Christ). If that seems impossible, then we have something more to learn of the meaning and value of Christ's death. It is said that Christ was made sin for us in order that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him.

This righteousness is not a thing man works up and presents to God. It is a perfect thing that God presents to man (Rom. 3:21-23). It is likened in Scripture to the wedding garment which God provides as a gift. Christians are said to be clothed in white linen, the garment of God's righteousness."

The lecture tonight will be on "The New Life in Christ." The service opens at 8 with a special programme of song.

The afternoon lecture at 4 o'clock today will be on the work of the Holy Spirit on unsaved men in bringing them to God. These services will prove of greatest value to all.

Mrs. E. L. Hinton Bereaved.

Many friends will tenderly sympathize with Mrs. Edgar L. Hinton in the death of her father, Rev. William Lively, who passed away several days ago at his late home in Birmingham, Ala. Mrs. Hinton had just returned to Wilmington from her father's bedside, when she received a message conveying to her the sad intelligence of his passing.

TO ERECT NEW CHURCH.

Southside Baptists Want Larger Home. Church to Cost $15,000.

The congregation of Southside Baptist church has decided to have a handsome new church erected and all preparations are to be made so that work can commence early next Spring and proceed rapidly to completion. The new house of worship is to be located on the same property as the present church, corner Fifth and Wooster streets. The sum of $15,000 will be expended and the building will be one that will be a source of pride to the people in the southern section of the city.

Rev. W. G. Hall, the pastor of Southside church, has done an excellent work since he has been pastor and is much beloved by his congregation. He showed his congregation that the scope of the church work has outgrown the capacity of the present building. The congregation is thoroughly in accord with the ideas of Rev. Mr. Hall about the new church.

COAST LINE PAID ON FIRST DAY.

Settled Its Taxes in New Hanover Yesterday for Present Year.

The Wilmington Sewerage Company, which will likely soon quit business, as the plant will probably be formally turned over to the city within a few days, has the distinction of being the first to pay the State and county taxes in New Hanover for the year 1912. The tax books were given to Sheriff Cowan late Monday afternoon and yesterday was the first day taxes were payable. The receipts yesterday from 1912 taxes amounted to $12,843.83, running up to this amount on account of the fact that the Atlantic Coast Line paid its tax, amounting to slightly over $12,000. The amount collected on the first day last year was $431.40.

Cottolene for Digestible Muffins

Muffins can never be their best if made from lard and soaked with grease.

Cottolene muffins are light, dry and crisp, because Cottolene heats to a higher temperature than butter or lard, without burning, and in cooking forms a crust which shuts out the fat.

Cottolene cooked food is always digestible.

Cottolene is much more economical than butter or lard.

TRY THIS RECIPE FOR MUFFINS

1½ tablespoons melted Cottolene
1½ cups milk — 1 tablespoon sugar
3 cups sifted flour — 1 scant teaspoon salt
1 egg — 3 teaspoons baking powder
Sift baking powder and flour together; add the Cottolene, sugar, egg and milk (use more or less milk according to flour).

PRE-NUPTIAL RECEPTION WAS GIVEN LAST NIGHT

Complimentary to Miss Henrietta Elise Fick, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nicholas Fick, Sr., and Mr. Rudolph Henry Gieschen, whose wedding takes place this afternoon, a most eleaborate and highly enjoyable wedding reception was given last night at the Howard Relief Club. The attractive rooms were tastefully decorated, the color scheme being green and white. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Fick, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Harvey, Mrs. Habernicht, Mrs. H. Gerdes, Mrs. J. H. Bornemann and Mrs. Wm. Bornemann. The brilliant affair was attended by about 200 people and the occasion was one of much pleasurable interest to all. Dancing continued until 1 o'clock this morning. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening. The marriage of the popular couple will take place at St. Paul's Lutheran church at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon.

KITCHEN SHOWER GIVEN TO MISS SOUTHALL

Magnolia, N. C., Oct. 7.—Quite the social event of the season was the kitchen shower given by Mrs. W. R. Newbury Friday afternoon, complimentary to Miss Southall. The Newbury home presented a scene of rare loveliness, with masses of cut flowers, palms and the soft glow of myriads of shaded lights. In the hall the color scheme of red was carried out with dahlias and Autumn leaves. Here receiving were Mrs. Theo. Middleton and Mrs. M. B. Taylor. At the doors to the parlor were Miss Barden and Miss Harris, who presented the guests to the receiving line, which was composed of Miss Southall, Mrs. Newbury, Miss Eleanor Southall and Mrs. John E. Southall. The color scheme of this room was yellow and was carried out with golden rod and chrysanthemums. In the dining room the bridal colors of green and white were beautifully effected by the use of white roses and lilies, with long-leaf pine. In this room were Miss May Pickette and Miss Louise Croom. Before leaving each guest was requested to write a toast to the bride, which were bound into a booklet as a souvenir of the happy occasion.

Miss Southall is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Southall and a granddaughter of the late H. E. Newbury, of this place. Her own popularity, with the prominence of the family, makes her marriage on October 16th, to Mr. Leonard M. Sanderson, an event of great interest throughout this section of the State.

PENDER COUNTY REPUBLICANS.

Progressives in Control of Convention There Yesterday.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., Oct. 8.—The Republicans of Pender county held their convention here today at noon to nominate a county ticket. The convention was called to order by County Chairman Joseph Newkirk. The Progressives were in full control from start to finish. The work of this convention marks a new era in the political circles of Pender county, owing to the fact that for the first time in about 16 years, whoever was postmaster at Burgaw, was also county chairman.

The Progressives turned the trick last month at the convention which met at Burgaw to elect delegates to the Republican convention which met in Charlotte September 4th. At this convention the Progressives threw overboard E. M. Moore, then county chairman, a Taft Republican, and also a postmaster, and elected to succeed him Mr. Joseph Newkirk, a strong Roosevelt adherent. The writer is well informed in regard to Pender county politics and at this writing is unable to report but one Taft Republican left and that one holds a Federal office.

The work of today's convention winds up the Republican party of Pender county, owing to the fact that the convention, as one man, cast its lot with the Bull Moose. It was a harmonious affair, as the entire body was composed of Christian Soldiers. Mr. Parker, of Duplin county, addressed the delegates upon the political questions of the day, which caused much enthusiasm among the delegates. Mr. Parker is a Progressive of the right type and wakes the boys up wherever he goes.

The following ticket was named: For the Legislature, Mr. J. W. Rowe; for sheriff, Mr. James Johnston; for commissioners, Henry Newkirk, B. B. Wooten and J. H. Highsmith; register of deeds, J. A. Blanchard.

RIVER WORK IS SUSPENDED

No Money of New Appropriation to be Expended Until Opinion Is Given by Secretary of War—Probably Be Temporary

Work on the lower Cape Fear river has been suspended under orders from the War Department not to expend any of the new appropriation until a decision is rendered by the Secretary of War relative to the meaning of certain parts of the rivers and harbors bill where it refers to the report made by the chief of engineers on the project. It is not believed that there will be any serious trouble about what is meant and that the suspension will be only temporary.

It appears that the rivers and harbors bill provides that the appropriation of $300,000 is made in accordance with the report of the chief of engineers. Now in the report of the chief of engineers, who was Capt. Earl I. Brown, at the time the report was submitted, there is a provision to the effect that local authorities should expend at least $200,000 before receiving any money from the National government. When this matter was before Congress a delegation from the Chamber of Commerce, of which Mr. J. Allen Taylor, was chairman, appeared before the rivers and harbors committee of Congress and laid before the committee all of the facts about this port and the extensive terminal facilities provided during the past few years by the Seaboard, Coast Line and Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son. Mr. Taylor stated last night that the report of the chief engineer required that public or private terminal facilities be provided but that the same be subject to public use generally on equal terms. He said it was explained that the greater part of the money expended by the railroads and Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son had been since the report was made by Capt. Brown, and this was especially true as to the Seaboard. The local committee was left with the impression that the city of Wilmington need have nothing to fear and that the facilities provided would be considered as meeting the requirements specified in the engineer's report.

As the matter now stands it rests entirely with the Secretary of War as to what course will be followed, but it is not believed that any adverse action would be taken without giving the city an opportunity to be heard, and especially in view of the understanding had with the rivers and harbors committee.

The work here was not really ordered suspended but Major Stickle received orders to not expend any of the new appropriation until an opinion was given by the Secretary of War and as all of the money, or practically all of it, had been expended the work had to be stopped.

Last night The Star wired its Raleigh correspondent to see Senator Simmons, who is spending several days in Raleigh, and see what his understanding was about the lower Cape Fear appropriation. The correspondent wired as follows:

"Senator Simmons says the bill for the lower Cape Fear appropriation was passed in both the Senate and House without any condition as to terminal facilities. He feels sure that there can be no continued hitch as to this matter."

..Theatrical..

The Edyth Totten Company made its second appearance at the Academy of Music last night, in its present popular price engagement, and gave a splendid presentation and also production of Tolstoy's "Resurrection.' The play is one difficult to handle, requiring fine acting, but the cast measured up in every way to all requirements and gave what was perhaps the best popular price performance seen at the Academy in years. Miss Totten, who undoubtedly is an actress of superior talent, appeared with excellent effect in the stellar role. Miss Totten is remembered by many Wilmingtonians for her admirable work in Shakespearean roles. The company is the best popular price attraction seen at the Academy in years and it is exceptional in the fact that its repertoire is decidedly high-class and consists of big successes.

Two performances will be given today. At matinee this afternon the company will repeat Monday night's fine bill. "The Volunteer Parson," numerous requests having been made for the repetition, and tonight a rattling farce comedy will be offered in "Bill's Kid." It is a play fashioned on the order of "Baby Mine" and it is a laugh from start to finish. A splendid cast will be seen in the piece and the production, as all of the company's, will be made with special scenery, such being one of the big features of the attraction.

The matinee prices will be 10 and 20 cents, and the night prices will remain the same, 10, 20 and 30 cents. Seats for tonight are now on sale at Plummer's.

At the Grand.

"The Great Drought", a dramatic story of ranch life in the West during the season of no rain, will be presented at the Grand today. The story is one of intense interest and those who fail to attend this popular playhouse today will miss a treat indeed. It is one of the best films offered in some time.

Another most interesting and instructive picture will be one showing an episode in the life of John Milton, the world renowned blind poet. Pictures at the Grand are always of the very best in every respect and there is nowhere in the city where an hour can be spent more delightfully, either during the afternoon or at night.

Mr. Leonard Chick will sing one of the greatest love songs ever written, "That Was Before I Met You."

At The Bijou

The popular Bijou is certainly keeping up its pace for big shows and is thereby adding largely and daily to its enviable reputation as the most delightful joy spot of Wilmington, and regardless of the size and extra cost of the show the price of admission remains the same—5 cents, at any and all times. Add to this the solid comfort of the Bijou and a perfect picture of true delight is presented.

Today's Bijou bill is a corker in every way. The most novel and dainty comedy film ever manufactured is one of today's stars in "An Assisted Elopement." The scenes are laid amid the gaiety and fashion of a seashore and on the mighty deep. The former will appeal with especial interest to the folks of Wilmington, on account of Wrightsville Beach.

"The Redemption of Slivers" is another big topliner. It tells an intensely interesting story of the redemption of a thief, showing that there is a future left for every man.

The other films are also daisies and will help make the Bijou's bill today the very best ever.

SPECIAL MEETING OF N. L.

President Lynch Calls One, Which Has Baseball Men Guessing.

New York, Oct. 7.—There was much speculation in baseball circles here tonight as to the meaning of the calling of a special meeting of the National League by President Lynch to be held a day or two after the close of the world's series and the Chicago series. Word of the exact date will be telegraphed to all culb presidents later this week. Mr. Lynch's notice to the club presidents states that the special meeting will "be of the utmost importance to the National League."

While nothing could be learned from the league officials, baseball men believe the special meeting will have something to do with the recent statements of Horace S. Fogel, president of the Philadelphia club, with reference to umpires favoring the New York team in their decisions.

It was also reported tonight that the special meeting may consider enforcing a resolution adopted at the last annual meeting of the league, providing that the club winning the National pennant should turn over to the other seven clubs of the organization 25 per cent. of its receipts from the world series games. It is reported that six of the league clubs signed this resolution, the exceptions being New York and Philadelphia.

DEPENDS ON TERMINAL CO.

Settlement of Railway Strike Hinges On Their Action

Augusta, Ga., Oct. 7.—Settlement of the Georgia Railway strike hinges on what action the Atlanta Joint Terminal Company will take with regard to the 40 men who went on a "sympathy" strike. Both sides, however, had an agreement as to the Paschal and Morgan cases, which caused the strike, it was stated today, but the terms of the agreement were not made known. A conference over the terminal feature probably will be held in Atlanta tomorrow.

No effort was made today to operate trains as a result of the violence of the past two days.

Augusta, Ga., Oct. 7.—Governor Blease, of South Carolina, today declined to order troops to Aiken county to preserve order and permit the operation of the interurban cars of the Georgia Railway Company. In denying the request of Sheriff Rayborn, the Governor declared the cars did not carry "necessities of life or the United States mails and should be discontinued until the people quieted down."

—Mr. Frank T. Mills lost one of his fine horses on the race track at Highwood Park late yesterday afternoon. The animal was being tried out on the track when it fell and broge its leg. The horse was then shot to relieve it of its suffering.

—LeRoy Boyd, the 15-year-old negro youth arrested here Sunday on suspicion when he tried to sell a $150 diamond ring for $2, was taken to Florence yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff J. B. Cain, who came here for him on the midnight train. Boyd is said to have stolen the ring in Florence.

—The fire department was called out at 2:52 P. M. yesterday by an alarm from box 17 on account of a blaze at No. 1305 North Fifth street, house owned by S. M. Jones and occupied by Roberta White, colored. The damage to the building is estimated at $250 and is insured. The fire originated in a bed room, but the cause is unknown.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 8.—The coroner's jury which investigated the case of David Bruce Brown, the automobile driver who was killed when his machine went into the ditch prior to the Vanderbilt Cup Race, returned a verdict this afternoon in which they stated that the road on which he was driving was too narrow for safety.

Healthy Mothers

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

COTTON GENERALLY STEADY

The Market Was Less Active But Prices Advanced From 7 to 10 Points—Highest Point of Day Reached at Close

New York, Oct. 8.—The cotton market was less active today, but showed a generally steady tone on covering and trade buying, with the close very steady at a net advance of from 7 to 10 points.

The market opened steady at an advance of 5 to 9 points, and during the early trading sold 9 to 10 points above the closing figures of yesterday, in response to relatively firm English cables, reports that continental spinners had been heavy buyers in Liverpool and covering, in addition to local buying there was considerable demand from houses with foreign connections. The South was a heavy seller here on the early advance.

Prices weakened as soon as the demand from the shorts showed signs of disappearance and the market sold off during the middle of the day to a shade until the closing figures of last night was reached.

The midday selling met good buying orders on a break of about 10 points from the top and later renewed firmness developed on continued trade buying and a fresh flurry of covering. Prices reached the highest point of the day in the late trading, closing 2 or 3 points off from top, under realizing.

Spot closed quiet. Middling uplands, 11.10; do. gulf, 11.35; sales, none.

Futures closed very steady.

COTTON WEIGHTS.

Sec. Hester Issues Statement of Weights of 1,108,598 Bales.

New Orleans, Oct. 8.—Secretary Hester today issued a statement of weights of 1,108,598 bales of cotton handled at outposts and across the Mississippi, Ohio and Potomac rivers overland to American eta nrers outside of the cotton belt during the month of September, showing an average per bale of 539 65-100 against 524 87-100 pounds for the same period last year. THE IRAN'S CARGO AFIRE

Cotton-Laden Steamer Puts In at Newport News

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 8.—The British steamer Iran carrying cotton from Galveston to Europe, passed in the Virginia capes on fire today.

Newport News, Va., Oct. 8.—Withc fire raging in holds Nos. 1 and 2, the British steamer Iran, cotton-laden from Galveston to Bremen, put into port here today in distress. The fire was discovered two days out from Galveston and has been burning fiercely for five days and when the ship arrived today the crew was nearly exhausted. The fire was said to be under control tonight. The damaged cotton will be discharged here in order that the amount of damage may be ascertained.

New York, Oct. 8.—The first shipment of blond Eskimo exhibits was opened for public inspection at the American Museum of Natural History today. It consists of clothing, weapons, toys and musical instruments of the tribe that Vilhjalmar Stefansson discovered at Coronation Gulf two years ago.

STOCKS CONTINUE IRREGULAR

Trading Relatively Light—Interest Centers Around Baseball Championship—Disturbance Over Balkan Situation

New York, Oct. 8.—The tone of today's stock market was again irregular and the trading relatively light. In the afternoon interest seemed to centre around the baseball championship game.

Leading stocks opened at a decline and manifested some further disturbance over the Balkan situation.

Partial recovery from the low level of the morning was shown at midday, especially by Reading and United States Steel, but strength was most conspicuous in such issues as Wheeling and Lake Erie, People's Gas, California Petroleum, National Lead and the local tractions.

Specialties as a whole were weak and in light demand. American Beet Sugar, American Sugar, Woolworth and similar issues recorded declines of one to almost three points. The market langiushed in the last hour, closing with no material changes from the opening. The money market reflected the dull dealings now prevailing in the securities market.

The bond market was dull and featureless, save for some activity in tractions. Total sales, par value, were $2,315,000 shares.

GUNMAN LAID TO REST

Jack Zelig Buried With Typical Eastside Pomp

New York, Oct. 7.—"Big Jack" Zelig, the gunman, was buried today with all the pomp the Eastside could give. Rival gangs declared a truce to attend his funeral. His body was borne to the grave through streets lined three and four deep with onlookers, with a train numbering thousands as an escort.

The police were fearful that gang fighters would settle their differences at the funeral and had a guard near the body of the gunman ever since he was killed Saturday night. Twenty patrolman and 30 detectives kept the crowd in the streets moving today. For several hours the body lay in state in Zelig's flat, and hundreds viewed it.

A squadron of mounted police met the funeral train in Brooklyn and accompanied it to the cemetery.

GOLDSBORO'S CIRCUS DAY.

Will Observe Fire Prevention Day in Unusual Manner.

Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 7.—Today is "Circus Day" in Goldsboro, with Sun Bros.' Shows holding the boards and while there is not the usual large crowd in town that has attended the circuses of the past, there is a good crowd, many of whom are disappointed that there was no parade. Howes' Shows will exhibit here tomorrow, and Hon. Tom Settle will speak at the court house at 11, and these two attractions will doubtless bring many people to town. Settle's appointment opens the Republican campaign in this district.

Fire Prevention Day Wednesday the 9th, will be observed in Goldsboro in an unusual way. At a time to be selected by the superintendent of Goldsboro's public schools an alarm will be turned in from the school without notice of such time to the fire company, which is a volunteer one, and at the same time the fire drill alarm will be sounded in all the rooms of the three school buildings. The fire company will turn out and attempt to stretch two lines of hose to the school building and show water before the children can be marched from the building. This race between the two will be watched with interest, as it demonstrates the efficiency of the fire company, and likewise tests the school fire drill system in a practical manner.

BIG DAY AT JACKSON.

Supporters of Senator Simmons in Northampton Out in Force.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Jackson, N. C., Oct. 7.—Today was a field day for the supporters of Senator Simmons in Northampton. The Senator was advertised to address the citizens at the court house today, but on account of hoarseness caused by much speaking his physician advised that he make no more speeches until he was better, so the Hon. Cameron Morrison, of Charlotte, filled his appointment, speaking for nearly two hours to an audience estimated at from 1,500 to 2,000 people. The court house would not ho'd the immense crowd, so seats were hurriedly arranged in front of the building. After making a strong appeal for Woodrow Wilson, Mr. Morrison took up the charges against Senator Simmons and answered them in a way to win frequent and loud applause, indicating that the Senator has a large following in Northampton, where Governor Kitchin has made three speeches during the campaign. The size of the crowd and the enthusiasm manifested seemed to greatly please the Simmons leaders, as farmers are busy digging peanuts and it was not expected that many would quit their work this beautiful weather to attend a political speech.

T. R. DEMANDS PROOF.

Asks Wilson to Deliver the Goods or Retract Statements.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Colonel Roosevelt called on Governor Woodrow Wilson tonight either to prove or retract his statement in Pueblo, Col., that the United States Steel Corporation is "Behind the third party programme in regard to regulation of the trusts."

"As far as I know," said Colonel Roosevelt, "the statement has not the slightest foundation in fact. Mr. Wilson has no business to make such a statement unless he has the proof, and if he has any proof I demand that he make it public immediately. If he has not, let him retract his statement as the only manly and honorable thing to do.

"As far as I know, the only big man connected with either the Steel Corporation or the Harvester Trust who is supporting me is Mr. Perkins. As far as I know, all the others in both the Steel Corporation and the Harvestter Trust are supporting either Mr. Taft or Mr. Wilson."

Colonel Roosevelt is en route to Michigan, the first State in which he is to speak on his tour of the Middle West.

ALLEN J. HIGGS DEAD.

Passed Away After Critical Illness of Two Weeks.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 8.—Allen J. Higgs, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Higgs, passed away today at the Higgs home on Blount street, after a two weeks' critical illness, aged 34 years. He continued his work with the North Carolina Demurrage Bureau here in spite of failing health until two weeks ago.

BIRMINGHAM LEADS NAPS.

Signs Contract to Manage Cleveland Team for 1913.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 8.—Joe Birmingham, who managed the Cleveland team of the American League during the end of the season just closed, today signed a contract as manager for 1913.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 8.—The fate of the crew of a large vessel, identity unknown, first reported afire and then sunk off Prospect tonight, remained unrevealed up to a late hour. First word of the wreck came at 9 P. M., when the lighthouse keeper at Sambro sent a wireless message that a "large vessel was on fire near his station."

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 8.—Yesterday was "town meeting day" for the small towns of Connecticut and the chief interest centered in the license vote. This year 54 towns voted on the question, 40 of them voting for license. There are now 81 license in the State and 87 no-license as compared with 5 license and 93 no-license last year.

it dangerous lest he should be taken into camp again."

Referring to the tariff, the Governor said:

"The utterances of Mr. Roosevelt with regard to the tariff are practically the same as the utterances of Mr. Taft and if you look at the Saratoga platform, which Mr. Roosevelt endorsed himself, there you will find an unqualified endorsement of the Payne-Aldrich tariff, just as unqualified as Mr. Taft made in his Winona speech.

Governor Wilson had a strenuous day in Kansas, making several speeches. For 20 miles of his journey he rode in the locomotive cab while the train was running a mile a minute.

At Phillipsburg, speaking of monopolies, he said: "Mr. Roosevelt wants to get on their backs and ride them, but he does not want them to be out of business."

Speaker Clark and Governor Wilson appeared together in public for the first time since the latter won the Democratic nomination. A tremendous crowd gave both men an ovation.

Speaker Clark in introducing Governor Wilson at Convention Hall called him the "27th President of the United States."

The Governor in reply, said he was glad to stand "shoulder to shoulder with the great Speaker of the House."

The Governor left at 10 o'clock for Springfield, Ill., and St. Louis, where he will speak tomorrow.

BEANTOWN IS WILD

Exults Over Red Sox Victory—Betting Odds 10 to 6

Boston, Mass., Oct. 8.—Bulletin board crowds of a size rarely equalled in this city, exulted today over the Red Sox stirring victory in New York.

"Good Old Joe Wood" was the slogan of thousands of "fans" after the opening game of the world's series had been decided in Boston's favor. When Wood struck out Pitcher Crandall, of New York, for the third out in the ninth inning, with men on second and third bases, a sigh of relief went up from the multitudes and all were shouting and cheering in the next breath.

Men and women of all degrees of the social and business life of the city gathered by thousands to hear the returns. On Newspaper Row all traffic was tied up. With the announcement "Boston wins 4 to 3" ringing in their ears, the crowd serged down the thoroughfare and into the side streets of the business district, back to the work which had been abandoned temporarily in favor of the sport of the day. About 15,000 persons already have obtained reserved seats for the game here tomorrow. More than this number will find places in the bleachers and many planned to be early tomorrow to their place in line. As a result of Boston's victory today, the betting which has been 10 to 8 on the Red Sox, changed to 10 to six.

Fair weather with a bright sun and crisp air was the prospect for tomorrow.

Bruce-Brown's Mechanician Passes Away at Milwaukee

Milwaukee, Oct. 8.—Tony Scudelari died here today. He was a mechanician and was injured in the same accident on the Vanderbilt Cup course that resulted in David Bruce-Brown's death last week.

Saved By His Wife

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F. "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me. A quick cure for coughs and colds, it's the most safe and reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsilitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50 cents and $1. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

"DYNAMITERS" CASE OUTLINED

"spy" system to be installed under the desk of President Frank M. Ryan.

The district attorney also asserted today that James B. McNamara and Ortie McManigal arrived in Chicago one cold day in February, 1511, and discovered that dynamite which they had carried in a suit case from Indianapolis had frozen. McManigal placed the dynamite on a radiator in his house and went out to look at a manufacturing plant. When he returned he found his little girl seated in front of the radiator playing with the explosive.

SETTLE IN GOLDSBORO.

Opened Republican Campaign in Wayne—D. H. Blair Also Spoke.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 8.—Hon. Tom Settle, Republican candidate for Governor, and Hon. D. H. Blair, of Winston-Salem, opened the campaign for the Republicans here today to an audience of about 125 people. Both speakers were introduced by Mr. E. A. Simpkins, chairman of the party. Mr. Blair said that first thing he saw on the streets here was a circus parade and was startled to see signs on two of the elephants and one camel advertising the Governor of the State of North Carolina for the Senate, and he intimated that it looked to him as if the Governor was a little afraid of the good old Democratic mule and was adding a camel and the G. O. P. elephant to his team to pull him into the Senate. He blamed the State Democrats for freight discriminations between this State and Virgina, evidently forgetting that the National Inter-State Commerce Commission should regulate that.

Settle followed him and for an hour entertained his audience immensely with wit and ridicule principally at the expense of the Senatorial candidates and said he was glad to see the leaders of the Democrats paying their respects to each other, and saying harder things than they did about the Republicans, and that it never would have been known what was going on in North Carolina if it had not been for the Senatorial fight; that Kitchin charged Simmons with graft, and poker playing, and too many other things to mention. He defended his stand on local option by claiming that Bryan and Woodrow Wilson advocated it for Tennessee and Maine, and that if it was good enough for Democrats in these States, it should be good enough for them here. He said Democrats had driven the liquor traffic into the hands of criminals and claim that $15,000,000 was sent annually to Virginia and other States for booze, while there were enough apples rotting on the ground in North Carolina to pay the State taxes. He ridiculed Craig as being too small for Vance's mantle.

The Hon. N. J. Rouse, of Kinston, will address the Democratic voters at the Messenger Opera House here tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, in the interest of Senator Simmons, and it is stated that he and local speakers will answer the charges made against Senator Simmons by Gov. Kitchin last Saturday. If so, it will doubtless be an interesting occasion.

The fans are so enthusiastic here over the world series games that they have arranged for a private wire to report the New York game at the rooms of the Commercial Association which will give the game in detail as it is played.

AVIATOR FATALLY HURT.

Jos. Stevenson Fell From Biplane at Alabama Fair Grounds.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 7.—Joseph Stevenson, the aviator, fell 50 feet from his biplane at the State fair grounds today and received injuries that probably will cause his death. His wife witnessed the accident.

Stevenson was just beginning his flight when suddenly he turned with the apparent intention of landing. The next instant he jumped and the aeroplane fell. Man and machine struck some distance apart. Stevenson's skull was fractured and several of his ribs were broken. A lung was punctured by a broken rib and surgeons say he will die. Treacherous wind current are believed to have caused the accident.

MONTENEGRO WILL FORCE THE ISSUE

tions Sunday to declare war today, which according to the Russian calendar is the King of Montenegro's birthday.

The Turkish view as expressed by officials is that Turkey was ready to enter into negotiations about the frontier dispute with Montenegro and hence, Montenegro's complaint on this score was a mere pretext to precipitate a conflict before the powers were able to intervene.

Montenegrin forces early this morning attacked Berana, which at noon was completely surrounded. Skirmishes are reported on the Servian frontier and Greek bands in the neighborhood of Diskata. An exchange of shots also has occurred near Kjumbala, on the Bulgarian frontier.

The opinion is deepening here that Montenegro was used as a catspaw by other Balkan States to forestall European intervention.

Late tonight the Bulgarian, Servian and Greek ministers were still without instructions from their governments, but their baggage was packed in the expectation of a rupture at any moment. They all scout the idea that diplomatic pressure will now be able to avert war. The universal belief is that only the occupation of Servia and Bulgaria by Austria and Russia would serve the purpose, but such a contingency is considered out of the question.

VICE CRUSADE GOES ON

Movement to Eliminate White Slave Traffic Begun In Georgia

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 7.—A movement for the elimination of the "white Slave" traffic in Georgia and a crusade against street characters and disorderly rooming houses in Atlanta, were recommended in the report of the city vice commission submitted to the council today. The recent crusade by Chief of Police Beavers against the "restricted district" was upheld and repression of the social evil in all its forms was strongly urged. The commission was composed of leading officials and citizens.

The report recommended that parents should instruct their children in sexual hygiene and that lectures on it should be made a regular feature of the public schools.
